one of the few times I have to say. So promise me you'll become the next Gloria Vanderbilt over the summer.
#1 so designed
some new clothes for Mr. Boor.
see you later
Corey

Patricia- It was great knowing you and your brother Raymond. You both are real cool people.
See you next year and have a great summer.

Patricia,

I've had a GREAT year in Science 5th period. Haven't you?!
I hope we're in a class together next year, you're a really fun gal! I'm glad I got to know ya better. Have a really fun summer! Keep smiling

Wu Ya, P.S. Don't forget this squirly freshman!!!

Pat,
It's been fun modeling for you (is people wouldn't laugh at me) It's been fun knowing you to, Have a good summer

Hi PAT! WHY DO YOU WANT TO KNOW SO BAD. I HAD LOTS OF FUN IN H.R. HOPE TO BE IN YOUR CLASSES NEXT. OH

Pat,
How are you doing?
I ~~am~~ am happy to have you a friend.
You are a great artist.
I hope we'll have a same class next year too.
Have a nice summer!!

Pat,
You were one smart
habe, may be I will give you a call some day for a little tutoring. I a wild summer.

Pat,
How has your year been?
Good I hope. It has been fun getting to know you this year. Hope you have a great summer.
Bob.

Patricia,
It was great
being in Spanish with you. I hope we will be in some classes next year. Have a great summer and don't talk too much (HEHE) Bob.

Pat,
This year was
of great not only because of you and Mr. Rowland but also because our football team won the championship. Well it was great having you in science and I hope I get you some of my classes next year!
Mike M

Hey Pat
It was great knowing you this year. Even though it was a short year
in this school.
Hope you have a great summer.
Your Friend
Cesar Lyle

Hey Pat.
So you still have more years to go knowing ya. I mean fun time. I was really unusual and I'll come back sometime. Have a rad summer.

From
Nina. Love
Tomi.

Hi Buddy,
WHAT IS ON NOW? BUSY BEING CREATIVE?
WELL, THE ONLY THING I CAN TELL YOU IS THAT YOU'RE A "GREAT" FRIEND AND ARTIST.
KEEP IT THAT WAY AND STAY COOL!
HOPE WE'LL HAVE SAME CLASSES
AGAIN. HAVE "RADDEST" & "UNFORGETTABLE"
SUMMER '86

Hello Pat!
You're such a sweet
person, and talented!
You a great artist!
We had a lot of fun at your B-day party!
And it was great
swimming with you!
Call me in the summer
I'll be serious!

SUMMER, RIGHT?

pat, J.P.

What a year, right. Swimming was a blast & well, there were exceptions such as morning workouts, 3000's, 1000's, bitchy coaches, but the best of times were had. All the guy spotting times, meets, ect. Some of those "Fellow Swimmers" were pretty cute. Well at least they had awesome bods & another year past, hey we'll be Juniors next year. Upperclassman at ~~the~~ last. But hey, were cool anyways, right? ||||

And what about our beach trips?

Those were quite interesting & the walks on the beach, running into Charlie, Kathy, Matt, Mike K., Mike and Mark, burning feet on the pier, the hamburgers at the end of the pier and LouAnn trashing mine, the guy that wanted our picture, Maxwell's (+ their vallets ^{Howdy}), bikinis or one pieces, ect. What the heck, and your b-day, sorry it didn't turn out the way it was planned, but next year it will turn out awesome & I don't even know if I'm going to do anything for mine next year. Oh- and your debut is coming up too. Well spend an awesome next year, as awesome juniors, meeting awesome guys, getting awesome grades, and swimming awesomely right? (Heh? ||) Lets have a blast at Tsunami's tonight okay? Have an awesome summer & get tan, I'll see you when ~~the~~ I come back Love always,
Friends Forever Steph

Titan Pursuits

Students express ambitions

Often, peoples' dreams are different from their goals. Goals are more of a reality; they're something you can work towards and achieve. When asked what a reasonable goal for their life was, many SMHS students indicated going to college, making money, or being happy. Others were unique in wanting to go to the Air Force Academy, become a veterinarian, or become a writer/director. Seniors tended to think in terms of a career or being married, while freshmen often listed "going to college." As ways to achieve their goals, students realized that they would need to go to school and put in lots of hard work. They also acknowledged that several different people had had great influences in their lives. Most people cited their parents, especially fathers, as the most influential, but others named friends, teachers, and God.

Titan Pursuits. Certainly most SMHS students are clearly on their way to achieving their goals. Some will come easily, others only after a great deal of hard work, and others maybe not at all. No matter what their future goals though, most SMHS students will leave SMHS looking toward shaping the rest of their lives and working toward achieving their goals.

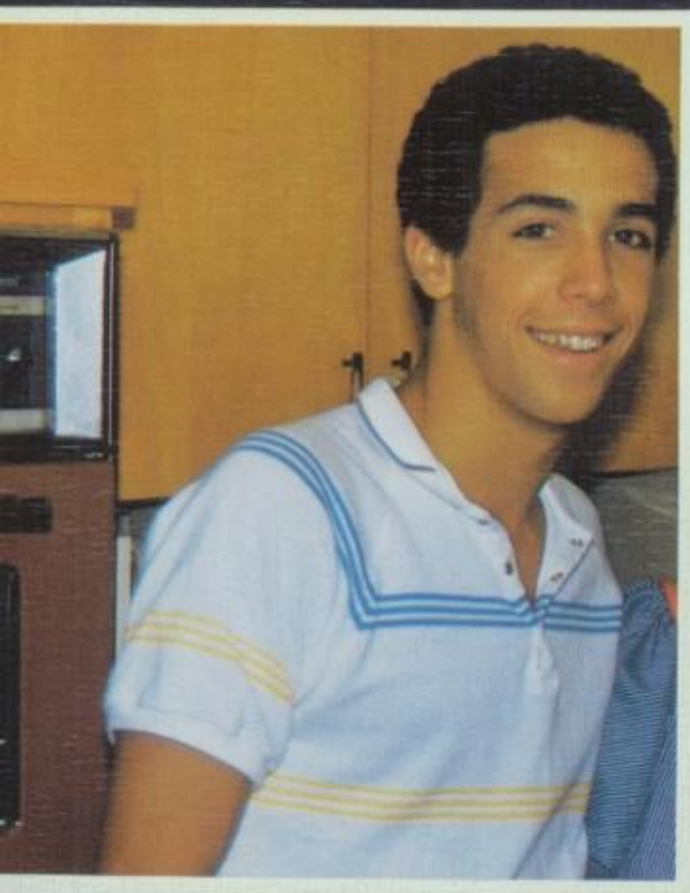

“Iwould like to be a professional tennis player. I would also like to possibly own a sporting goods store or be involved in sports medicine. I’ve learned that if I put forth my best effort, I won’t get discouraged.” — Katy Wood

“Iwish that I could help people, by doing my favorite thing in life, acting. I would perform and all profit would go to the poor throughout the world, not just Africa . . . if that doesn’t work, I’ll just keep smiling.” — Mylene Duyvestein

“Ever since I was little, I’ve wanted to live in America . . . I came here from Australia two years ago. Right now, I’m the Varsity Girls’ Swim Team Captain. My dream is to be on the Olympic swimming team.” — Kathy Palk

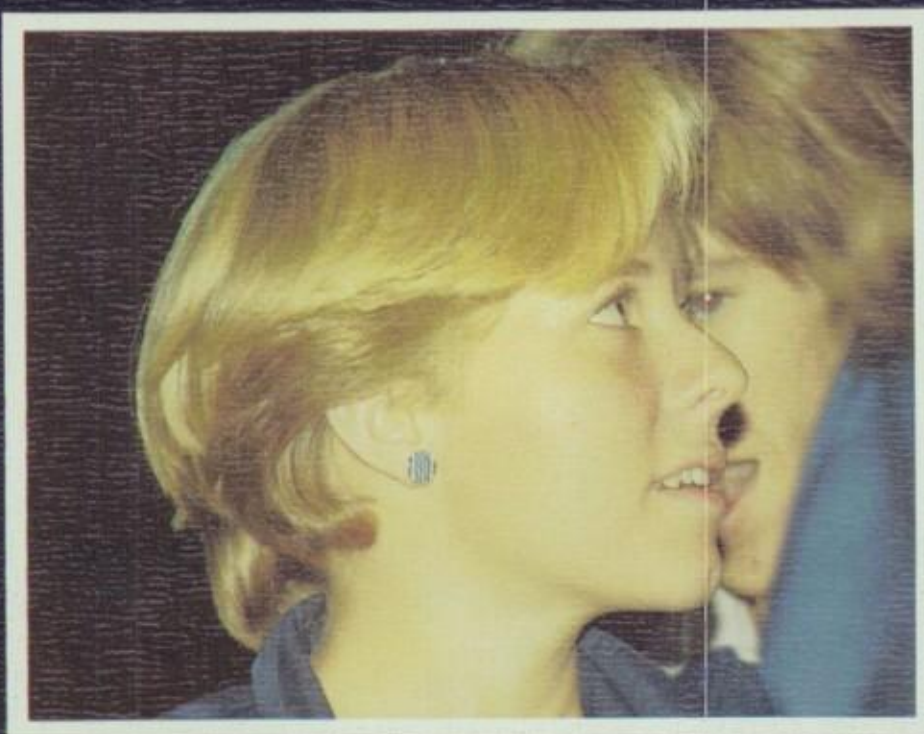

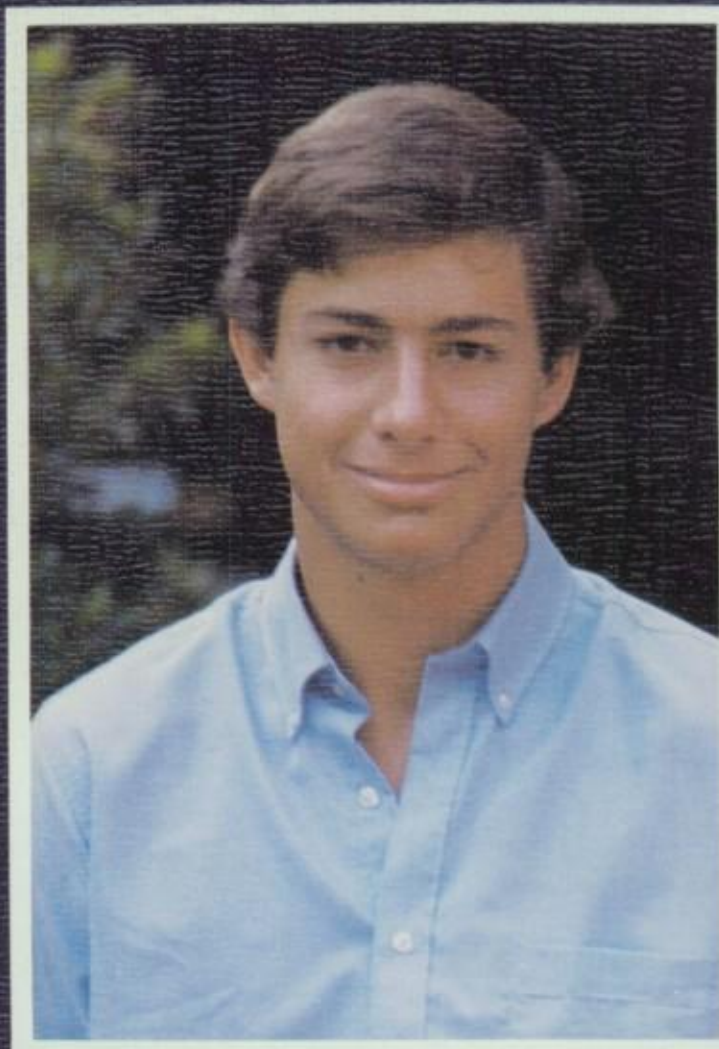

“No one knows exactly where they’re going or exactly what they’re going to do, but we can all hope and have dreams. We all make goals and work hard to achieve them but we can’t always get what we want. My goal is to get through my college education, as long as it lasts, and then hopefully become an international business lawyer.” — Ted Fogliani

Dreams and Goals

SMHS students set high standards

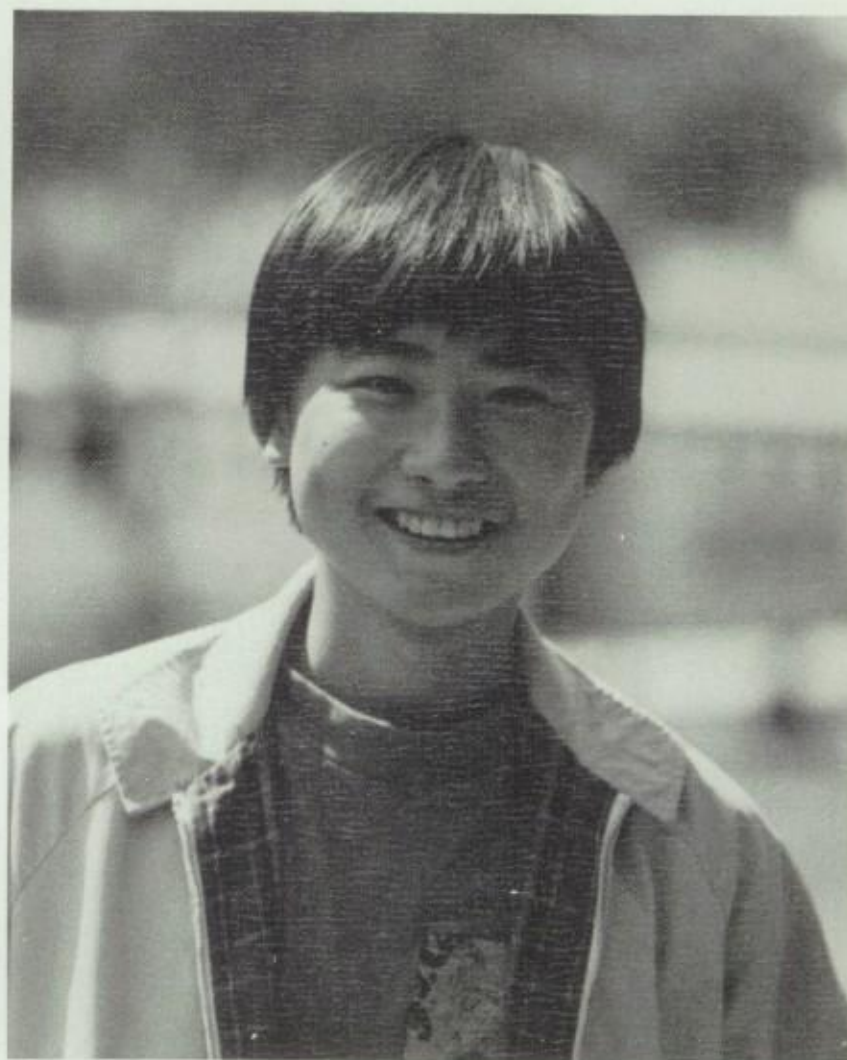

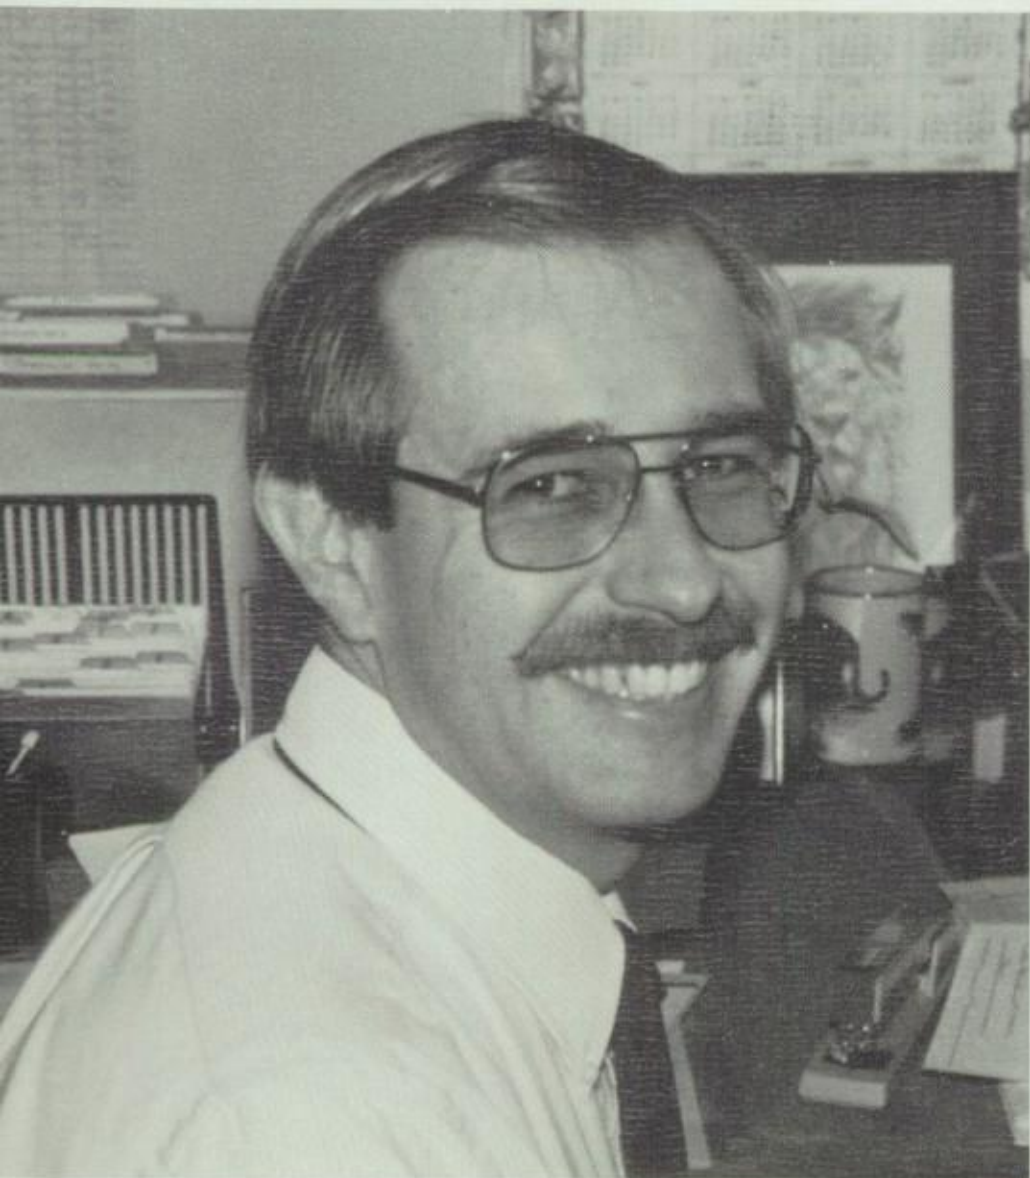

“My dream is to enter the Air Force Academy and become a jet pilot, and after serving my five years required service possibly own an electronics company and develop computer programs. My advice to others in achieving their goals is to take the resources available to them and make the most of them.” — Andrew Colace

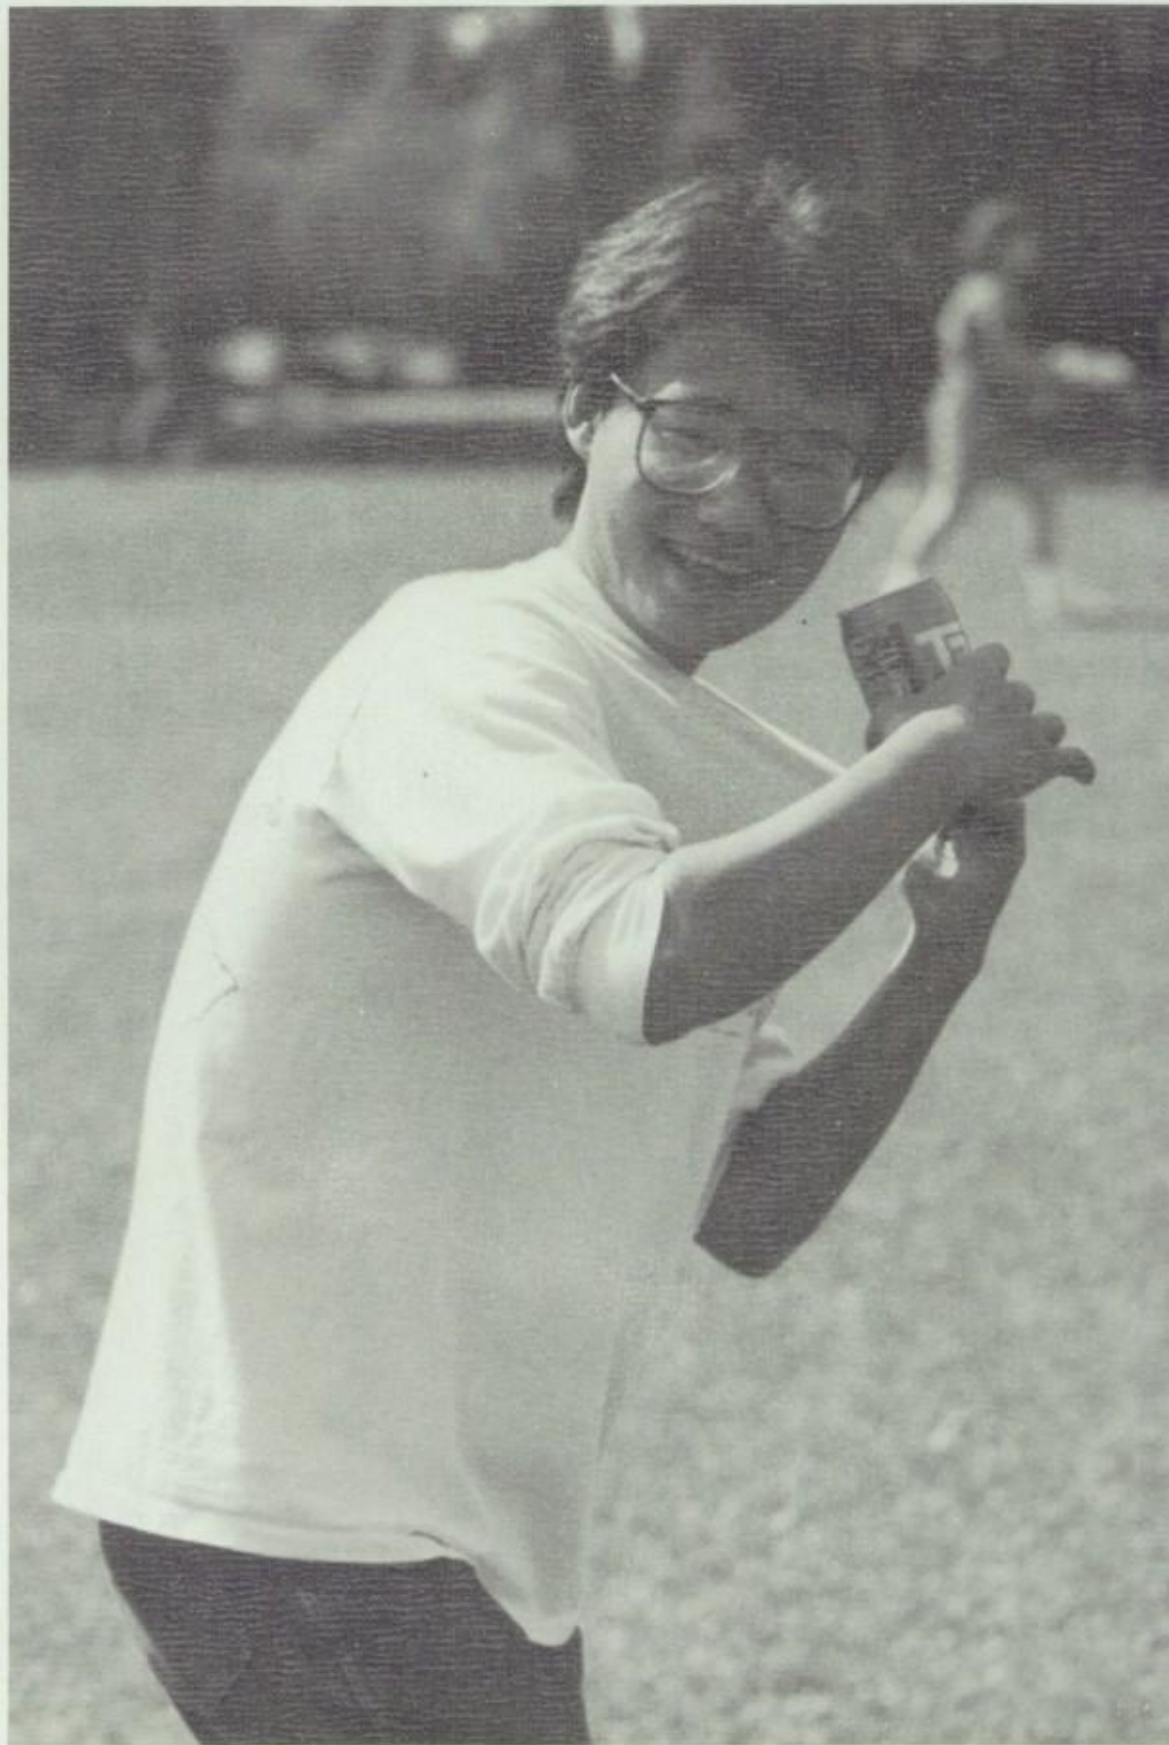

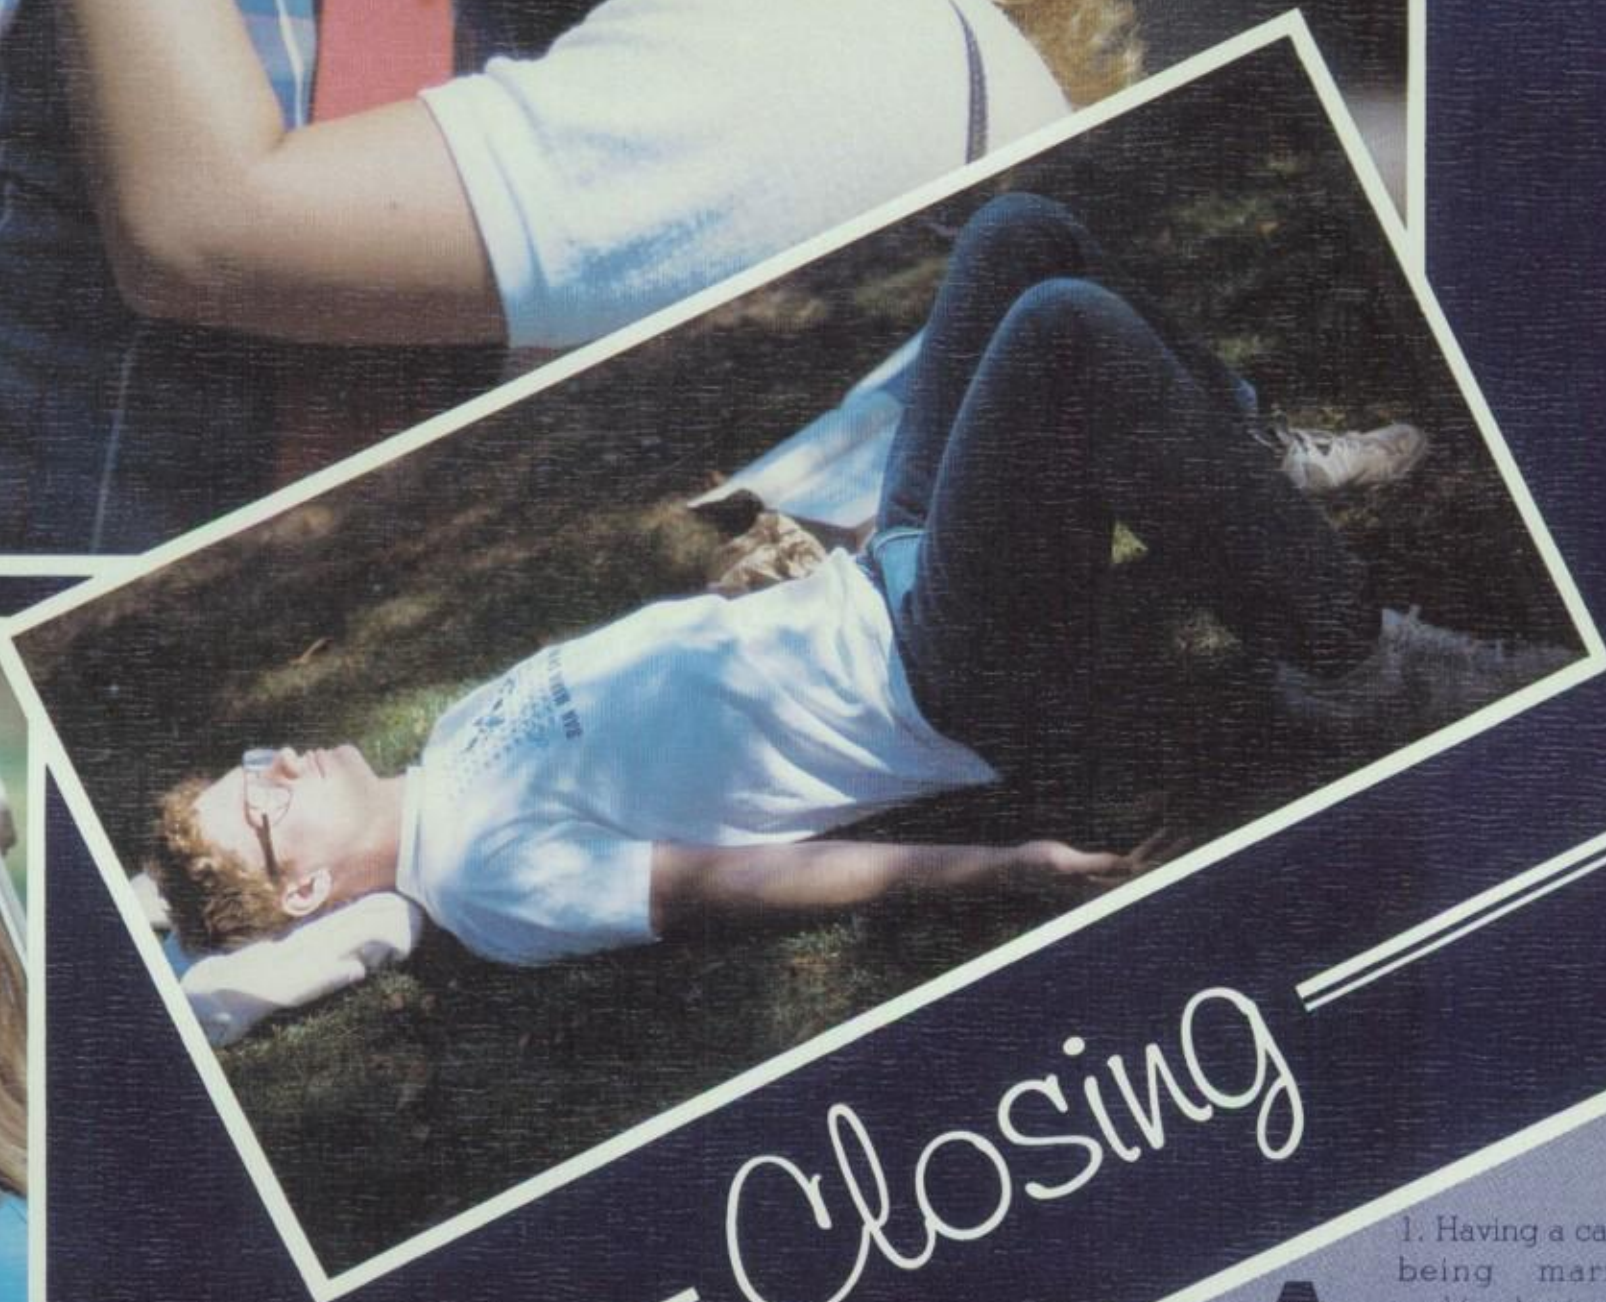

“Art has always been a big part of my life. When I’m painting, I try to capture the beauty in life. Children are among my favorite subjects to paint. I began painting when I was a child and now teach art to young children. I will definitely pursue my interest in art, whether professionally, or for personal enjoyment.” — Mia King

“I’ve always liked water. After a trip to Seattle, WA, one summer, I decided I really wanted to become a marine biologist. It just seems natural to do something with water.” — Anne Overturf

REMEMBER? "Profit is not important; spirit is."

Anne has a great idea! Thad. Where are Sean and Alyson? Take a stress-tab, Kevin! Carolyn, you cow! Karen: "You guuuuys!" Thad! Where are the minutes? It's your turn to do the marquee. Okay, people. Stand up, Victoria. Myleen, Melon, Meelyn . . . Sophomore Class President. Thad, be quiet! Get Dave to do it. "Victoria, have you done your Calculus homework?" Shhh! One person at a time! "Anne, where are our sweatshirts?" Darlene's mistake: Cashou Hanel — "I couldn't read it!" Shut up, Thad! It's been real, it's been fun, and it's been real fun. Thanks for the good times everyone! (That's touching.)

Jewellyn and Victoria — MEMORIES: 6 am visitors; X-mas Dance '82 — Hobson, Ted, & Al; breaking up at the SAME TIME; Forest Home — Wonder Twins; X-mas Dance '83 — Kevin & John; Ski Utah Luau — Scott & Rob; Tuesday lunches; Navajo '84 — the Jims & Ricks & Steve; 16th B-day party; 4th of July Dodger Game; Yosemite — ice-skating; Palm Springs — movies & cruisin' the strip; Prom; Navajo '85 — wink 'em nightgowns; "You're back together, aren't you?" calls from Hawaii; Häagen-Dazs; Newport '85 — surfers; summer camp — "Calvin, we appreciate you!!" Hospitality; "A lifetime's not too long to live as friends." Michael W. I love you! Prov. 18:24.

You've seen us fight.
You've seen us laugh.
Now it's time for us to leave.
We may not see you again.
The memories we share are what we leave for you.
Say goodbye.
Hold my hand
For it is time to cross the street.
I love you always . . .

Mike, John, Jim, Wes, Dan, & Tony. The finer things in life. "Looking good, John" "Feeling good, Dan" — Eddie Murphy Concert — "I'll be back" — "... I lied" — Don Johnson "Miami Vice" — "C'mon, everyone's doing it" — The JC — Mammoth — "Do you have the Vision Quest, Mike?" — Nick — FNL

Did you know that the test of an enjoyment is the remembrance which it leaves behind? Yep! The three of us are so fond of one another because our ailments are the same. But today is our last yesterday and ... Don't laugh at me silly! I love you. Well — goodbye and remember — we're laughing at you, not with you.

J.V. Softball Front Row: Kerri Christensen, Michelle Varner, Debi Mann, Lea Bolster, Staci Mann; Second Row: Lucy Antoci, Alyson Seden, Marlo Morre, Cynthia Frykman, and Jennifer Giambelluca.

Running towards first base, Amy Gordinier attempts to score.

Swinging with all her might, Debi Mann hits the ball.

Excellent Players

J.V. works together

We have become better friends through working together," stated member Lea Bolster of the 1986 J.V. Softball team. Some players on the team had been on the 1985 J.V. Softball team previously. The experience gained helped Lea Bolster, Debi Mann, and Amy Gordinier to become three of the outstanding players on the team. Freshman Alyson Seden, who played shortstop, was another outstanding player. Coach Joyce Johnson set some tough goals for the team. One was to finish within the top two of the league and also to beat Temple City, which was predicted to be a tough victory for San Marino. Coach Joyce Johnson said of the future, "The players on the 1986 team were excellent. If they return to play on the 1987 team, San Marino will be better than ever."

Attempting to hit the ball, Cynthia Frykman puts her all into the swing.

Successful Softball

Competitive team shows skill

With the addition of new players, the 1987 Varsity Softball team looks to be as competitive and successful as the 1986 team," commented Coach Mike Gallion of the 1986 Varsity Softball team. Team member and shortstop Caryn Cranston stated, "I like the fact that it is a team sport and that we get along with one another." Among the teams predicted to be San Marino's toughest opponents were La Canada, Temple City, and South Pasadena. Monrovia was also predicted as a tough opponent. Getting to the Rio Hondo League Championships or to the CIF Quarterfinals were some of the goals the team was striving for. The team was made up of many outstanding players. Kelly Gudel, Kelly Genda, Caryn Cranston, Laura Beyer, and Kim Spector were among those considered as all league candidates. Kim Spector held the best win/loss record of any previous San Marino pitcher. In 1984 Kim Spector pitched San Marino into the CIF Championship game.

Giving it her all, pitcher Kim Spector tries to strike out the opponent.

Eyeing the ball, Senior Kelly Gudel of the varsity team swings with all her might.

Robbie Santos swings for a hit. Robbie was one of the leading RBI (runs batted in) men.

Marty Wilhite bats against San Gabriel. Marty and Tony Garcia pitched a one-hit shutout.

Winning Season

Pitchers toss one-hit shutout

“We want a winning season. We are 3-0 at this point of the season,” stated Coach Robert Reed. “We also like to be Rio Hondo League Champions.”

One of the highlights of the early '85-'86 season was a one hit shutout by the pitchers Marty Wilhite and Tony Garcia over San Gabriel, one of the team's toughest opponents. Mike Arens, Marty Wilhite, and Tony Garcia were named outstanding pitchers. Other outstanding players were Robbie Santos and Ron Steffey for getting runs batted in; Greg Giesler and David Kadin were a good double play combination.

When asked about the future of the team, Coach Reed hoped the players will become better varsity players.

13-1 Triumph

Members play good baseball

“The team's future will depend on better individual players who can contribute to a CIF Champion Varsity Baseball team,” expressed Coach Martin Udell. Coach Udell stated that the team's goal was to gain the Rio Hondo League Championship. In order to achieve this feat, Coach Udell commented that the J.V. team must play good baseball, have a degree of luck, and beat their toughest opponent — Temple City. One of the highlights during the season was a 13-1 triumph over Alhambra. Similar to last year, Coach Udell named Peter Richter, Bill Dial, and Steven Janes as outstanding players of the year.

Brian Imlay tags out the South Pasadena base stealer. Brian played his second year of baseball as a third baseman.

Todd Lund swings for a hit. He was in his second year of Titan baseball.

Steven Janes throws a strike against South Pasadena. Coach Udell named Steven as the outstanding pitcher.

Titan pitcher tries to pick off the South Pasadena runner by throwing to Pat Amestoy, the second baseman. Pat was in his first year as a Titan baseball player.

Anticipating, Kurt Brunner keeps his eye on the ball. This was Kurt's second varsity season.

Sprinting his way down the base line, Greg Scharlach gives his all in an attempt to steal second.

Leaving home plate, David Baldo tries to outrun the ball to first base.

Winding up and letting the ball loose, Jason Bass concentrates on a strike out.

Habitual Contenders

Boys begin season with victory

“The highlight of the season was the victory against South Pasadena 16-1 in the league opener,” stated Coach Mickey McNamee.

San Marino Varsity Baseball has consistently been a top contender for league championships, and has qualified for CIF playoffs 12 out of 15 years. They have also been honored to hold two CIF championships.

This season, Coach McNamee predicted that Blair and Temple City would be their toughest opponents. The list of outstanding players included centerfielder Brad Kirk and third baseman Scott Robinson, both of whom returned for their third year of varsity play. Coach McNamee also added second year player and pitcher Mike Harwell to the list. Mike was chosen for second team all league last year.

One goal the team set for themselves in the remainder of play was to continue to be contenders for future league championships and they hoped to qualify for the CIF playoffs.

Swinging hard, David Baldo attempts to move a man to second with a hit.

Crouching solidly, Greg Scharlach prepares for the next pitch.

Following through, Mike Harwell tries to get to first base with a hit to right field. This was Mike's second season as a varsity player.

Scott Robinson steps up to the plate in hopes of a home run.

Leaning into his stance, Eric Swanson concentrates on hitting a single.

Dance Team

Program continues to expand

Four years ago Mrs. Bonnie Studt was given the opportunity to begin a dance class. It has expanded and improved each year. The '85-'86 Dance team had a cabinet including Karen Ramos, president; Stacey Morrison, vice president; Carrie Reynolds, treasurer; Kim Moore, historian; Mia King, secretary; and Valerie Pappas, social chairman.

The '85-'86 Dance team was busy with the Chinese Club Party, Cabaret Night, Founders' Day, Dance Exchange and Workshop, and Dancetra which was the big Spring production. According to Karen, the dance team combined dance and song in some of their productions. Valerie Pappas commented, "Dance definitely has its ups and downs, but when you are up there performing and having the greatest time, it is all worth it."

The Dance team had their second dance workshop where they learned from professional teachers and met dancers from different schools. Dance tryouts were held in December; they were a necessity for being placed on either advanced or intermediate dance. Karen stated, "The excitement and energy for a performance can only be matched by the close friendships that each of us have experienced through dance."

Dance will continue to include many girls from SMHS and will continue performing and expanding even further.

During a dress rehearsal, Lisa Wines, Megan Boswel, Ruthie Escalante, Ginny King, Kadee Carriffe and Carrie Gerich warm up for their performance.

Forsh/Soph Track

The team continues to excel

M Mr. Kevin Hall, 5-year track coach new to SMHS commented, "To excel in track, a runner must be dedicated to hard work and many long hours of running. He must also enjoy doing this."

The Frosh/Soph Track team captains were Rich Adams and Hank Yang. Some of the most outstanding runners were Rich Adams, Hank Yang, Jerry Dietrick, John Y.C. Hsu, Cordin Blossiu, Joe Maldonado, Mark Morris, Chris Spears, and Jeff Holman.

The goals of the '85-'86 Track team were to repeat as an undefeated team and to be Rio Hondo League Champions for two consecutive years. Many experienced sophomores continued to support the Frosh/Soph Track team. The SMHS Track team's toughest opponent was expected to be La Canada and Temple City.

Running the 440-relay, Mark Morris continues to support the F/S Track team. This was Mark's second year on track.

Struggling to clear the high jump bar, Yeh-Ching Chen hopes for an Arcadia defeat. Clearing the high jump bar was practiced by many boys and girls on the Track team.

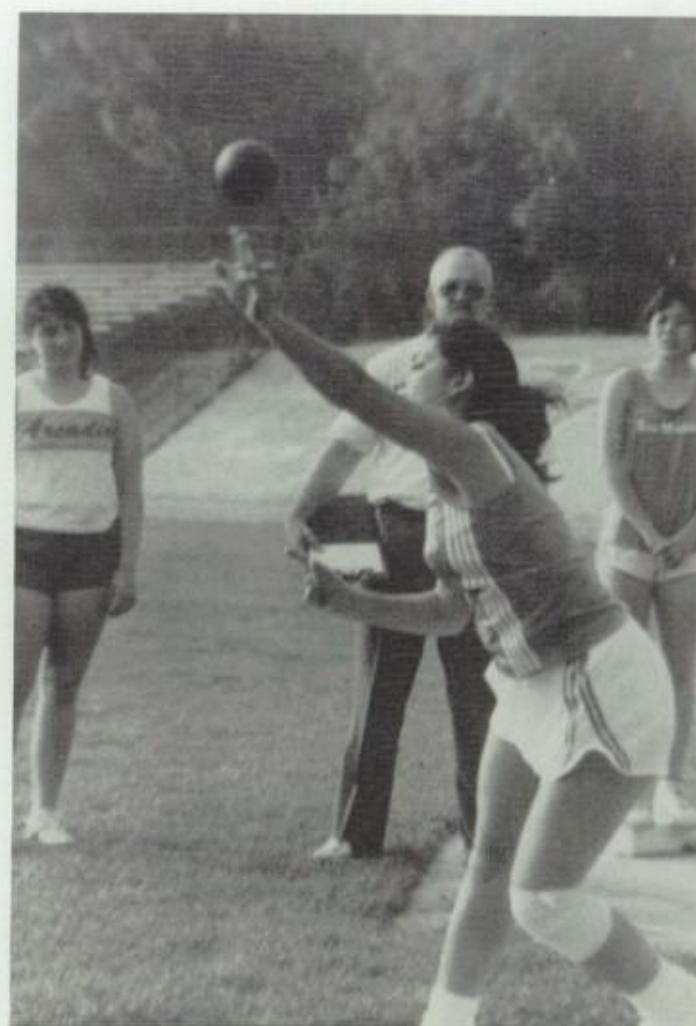

Striving for a longer jump, Louis Pastis leads toward victory. This was the first track meet of the season against Arcadia.

Frosh/Soph Track First Row: Sean Presant, Brian Sax, Brent Chang, Albie Vollero, Richard Serrao, John Hsu, Jim Tsai, Jerry Lin, Christa Gledhill; Second Row: Julie Hemming, Julie Raimondo, Budi Roekman, Mark Morris, David Copper, Jeff Dolan, Anthony De La Cruz, Lou Tran, Wes Heartfield, Louis Pastis, Alan Griffith, Eric Chang; Third Row: Steve Guluzian, Greg Norquist, Mike Garcia, Don Destino, Jerry Dietrick, Ed Atkinson, Rich Adams, Joe Maldonado, Jeff Holman, Art Bayardo, Cory Blossiu, Hank Yang, Yeh-Ching Chen, and Scott Withers.

Displaying considerable effort, Liza Kumjian lets go of a deep shot. Liza was one of eight girls' shot-putters on the '85-'86 track team.

Passing an Arcadia runner, Jeannie Young pushes on to gain the lead. In '84-'85, Jeannie went to CIF finals in the half-mile.

Starting the race quickly, Michele Abernathy and Alisha Orapallo compete for the early lead. Michele, a sophomore, and Alisha, a junior, both were second-year track members in '85-'86.

Outdistancing the pack, Diane Pettit continues to set a quick pace. Diane also ran for Girls' Cross Country in '85-'86.

Varsity Track

First-year SMHS coach guides team

"I think we'll get stronger and stronger," claimed Head Track Coach Mr. Kevin Hall. Coach Hall, who formerly was an assistant coach at Damien High School, forecasted solid seasons for both Boys' and Girls' Varsity in '85-'86. He felt that Boys' Varsity would finish among the top three in league, while the girls would end up above the .500 mark.

'85-'86 marked Coach Hall's first campaign as head coach. His assistants were: Coach George Arms, who coached sprints; Coach Phil Ryan, who coached the distance runners; and Coach Bill Maloney, who coached the hurdlers. The boys' team was led by senior sprinter Thad Linderman, senior pole vaulter David Moore, and junior sprinter David Solomon. The most outstanding Girls' Varsity performers were Aimee Whalen, sprinter, and Diane Pettit, distance runner. Coach Hall predicted stiff competition from La Canada and South Pasadena in league, and also noted that Arcadia would be an excellent non-league opponent.

The future of track looks bright, according to Coach Hall. Currently, there are many underclassmen in the track program that will provide the basis for future teams. "I expect our teams to keep doing better in years to come," Coach Hall asserted.

Sweeping first, second, and third, David Solomon, Mark McGregor, and Mike Austin head for the finish line. '86 marked their first year of Varsity track.

Vaulting high in the air, David Moore clears the bar. David was one of the most outstanding track members in '85-'86, according to Coach Hall.

Leaping with determination, Rob Norquist tries for extra distance. In addition to track, Rob also played Varsity basketball in '85-'86.

Boys' Varsity Track Front Row: Charles Yang, Patrick Long, Thomas Allan, Christa Gledhill, manager, Matt Brown, Mark McGregor, Julie Hemming, manager; Second Row: Julie Raimondo, manager, George Tam, Dave Solomon, Jim Nida, David Guluzian, Dean Palmer, Peter Montoya, Guzzie Hamill, Blair Chang; Third Row: Tony Young, Ara Kumjian, Charles Mishalany, Mike Austin, Rob Norquist, Vincent Chou, William Chen, Emilio Egeraige, Tony Shien, Thad Linderman, Albert Lau, and David Moore.

Executing a front pike, Carole Garafalo gains immense height. Carole placed third last year in CIF.

Improvement/Growth

'Divers perform well'

Diving Coach Sky Porter predicted the toughest opponent for the '85-'86 diving team to be the opportunity of confronting their fears and learning how to be successful in spite of them. Coach Porter disclosed that the team's goals were improvement and growth: improvement in the quality of training and growth with the development of new divers, such as junior Ariana Reynoso, sophomore Theresa Sheh, and freshman Amanda Miller.

Sophomore Jon Apt declared, "My goal this year was to perfect mechanics, style, precision, and to place in the top three at CIF. Theresa Sheh remarked, "A lot of people think that diving is a 'blow-out' sport and that all it takes is guts, but diving is really a very disciplined sport."

Coach Porter stated that senior Dorene Frank was the captain and that Jon Apt was the co-captain. Coach Porter felt that Dorene and Jon are the team's outstanding players because of Dorene's ability to handle pressure and Jon's persistence.

Coach Porter contended that the team's first meet was special because the weather was extremely bad. The temperature was 55° F, and the divers had to dive in a downpour of rain, but nevertheless, Dorene still performed well.

Diving Front Row: Carole Garafalo, Leigh McGilvray, Jon Apt, Amanda Miller, Theresa Sheh, Ariana Reynoso, and Coach Sky Porter

Top Relay Teams

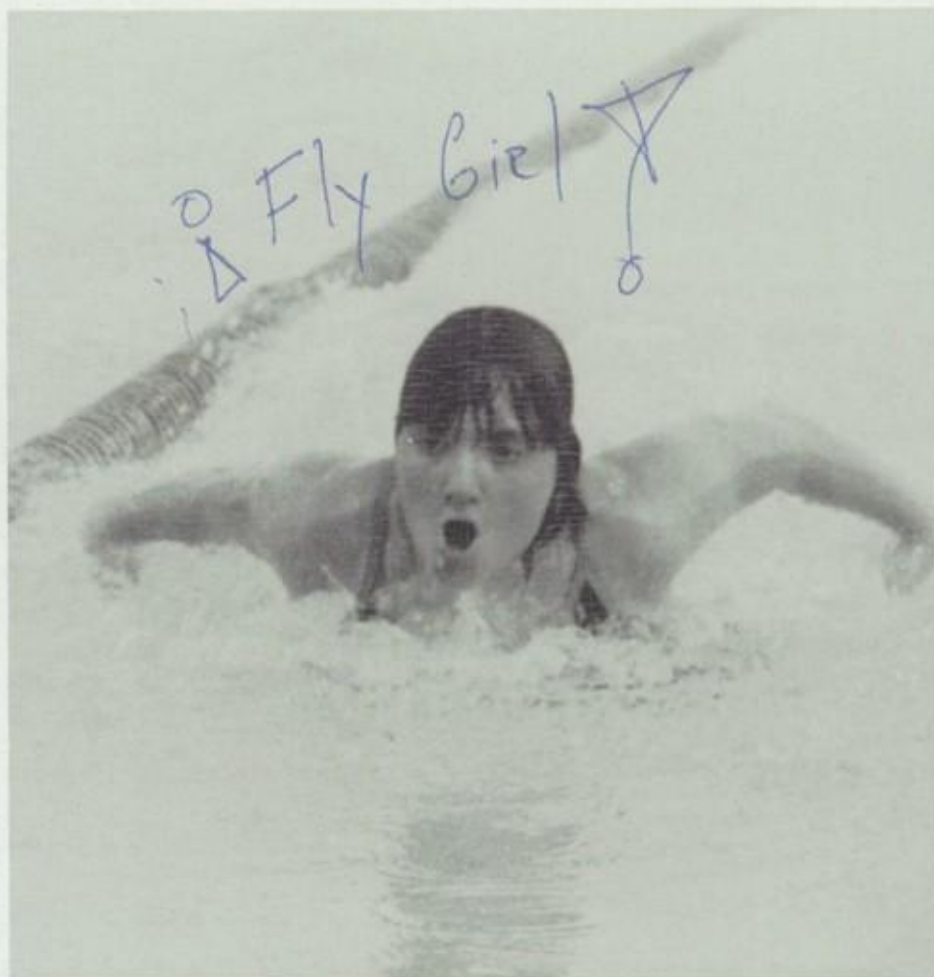

Swimmers concentrate on specialties

According to J.V. swim coach, Kris Lewis, the '85-'86 top performers for the girls were senior Tina Betts, junior Karen Alexander, sophomore Diana Pederson, junior Stacy Day, and sophomore Sally Schwab. The boys top performers were sophomores Eric Boegh, Ted Huang, Michael Wang, and Terrence Ou.

~~Sophomore~~ Kathe Hieber commented, "Swimming is exhilarating, and the view is not bad at all." Sophomore Patrica Tolentino added, "All the work and frustrations are rewarded with a funky Speedo tan."

Coach Lewis disclosed that the swimmers had already dropped a lot of time in all individual events; strokes, starts, and turns. Relays had placed in top invitational meets. Also, swimmers had begun to concentrate on their specialties.

Coach Lewis predicted improved stroke efficiency, dropped times, and placing in the top six at League Championships. Coach Lewis was also looking forward to tough meets with La Canada, South Pasadena, and both girls' and boys' League Championships.

Striving to win, Stephanie Otto does the butterfly. This was Stephanie's second year on J.V.

Preparing for the backstroke, Alex Coppersmith concentrates on winning. Many students participated in backstroke relays.

Taking off for an intersquad race, swimmers Dana Otto, Stacey Day, and Randa Wahbe hope for victories. Intersquad meets took place before the swim season began.

Swimmers Sara Schwab, Bret Winkler, Jason Rothbard, Jenna McBride, Jennifer Wilcott, and Alex Coppersmith enjoy each other's company. Varsity swimmers worked very closely as a team.

At the Fountain Valley Tournament Senior Bret Winkler competes in the backstroke. Many tournaments preceded the SMHS swim season.

Varsity Swimming

Expectations continue to be high

Goals were set high for the Boys' Varsity Swim team due to their thirteen consecutive years of being league champions. Girls' swimming has achieved their second year of being league champions. Randa Wahbe, a second year varsity swimmer, stated, "Swimming takes a lot of hard work and effort, but in the end it is all worth it."

Mr. Burt Kanner expected boys' and girls' swimming to be league champions, and the top five boys were expected to reach CIF. Outstanding swimmers Mike Kanner and Ed Richards were both second in their events last year in CIF.

The captains of the '85-'86 Varsity Swim team were Mike Kanner, Edward Richards, Kathy Palk and Sara Schwab. The team's toughest opponents were expected to be La Canada and South Pasadena.

According to Steve Adams, "There are a lot of talented swimmers on the '85-'86 Swim team, and I think we're going to have a great season."

Catching his breath, Beck Soderberg glides down the lane. Freestyle swimming was mastered by all SMHS swimmers.

Taking a break during an after school practice, swimmers talk about their day's events. Swimming practices were long and strenuous.

Cheering on his team, Edward Richards shows school spirit. SMHS victories were common at swim meets.

I LOVE you MATT

Following his swing, Oscar Huang watches his ball land. This was Oscar's first year on the varsity team.

Young Team

Golf looks to the future

"This year we need to build for next year," commented Kathleen Shanahan, a junior golfer. Compared to the '85 season's "deep" team, the '86 team was young and inexperienced and consisted of mostly underclassmen. Nevertheless, with top players Ted Chien, Chris Christensen, and Kathleen Shanahan, the team pulled through.

Because golf is an individualized sport, golfers must set their own goals, concentrate on their own games, and sometimes practice on their own time. As a team, the golfers showed dedication. They practiced two hours a day at Santa Anita or at other golf courses. Their goal was to win the La Salle and La Canada teams. With high hopes for the season and the future of the golf team, Chris predicted, "In the next couple of years, San Marino will probably have an incredible team."

Practicing his putting, Chris Christensen aims for the hole. Chris was the only senior on the team.

Before playing, Kathleen Shanahan practices putting. Kathleen was the second girl ever to play on the golf team.

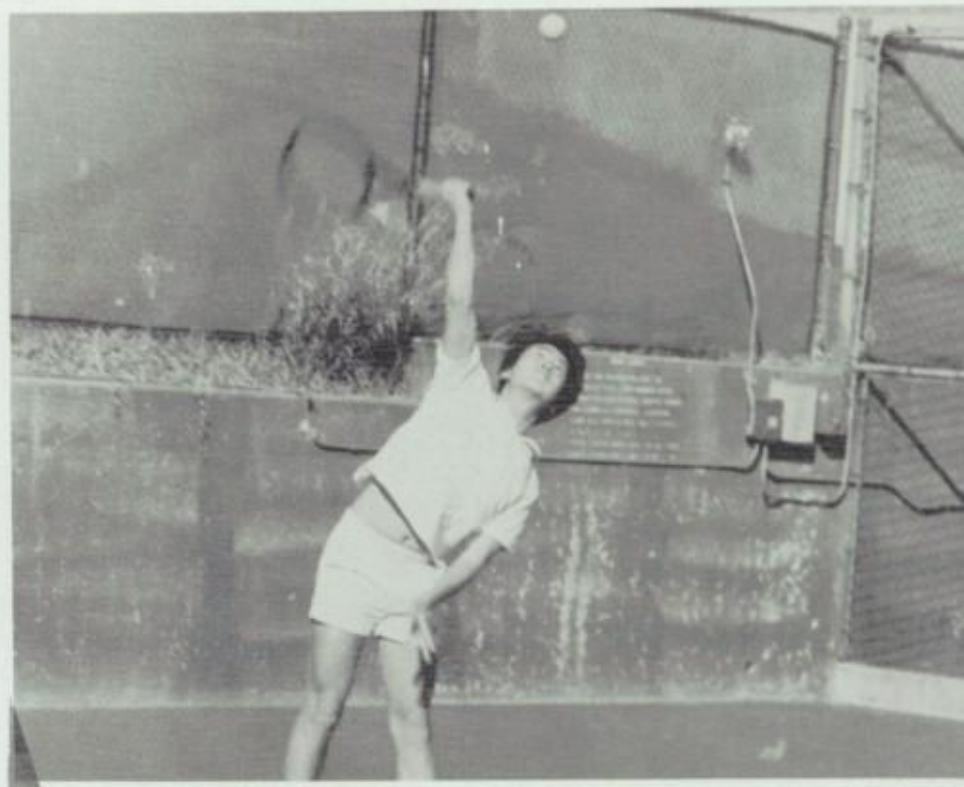

Finishing her swing, Joanna Clark observes the new position of her ball. '86 marked Joanna's first year on the team.

Better Every Year

Team 'looks good'

The J.V. Boys' Tennis team hopes to continue its tradition of winning league. The '86 season's team, a strong contender for the league championship, "looks good," according to Seth Present, a Junior player. "The team is pretty solid," added Seth. The team practiced two hours a day with goals of beating La Canada and winning league. Although it was hard work, the players had fun. "We enjoy the sport and the competition," remarked Steve Huang, a junior player.

In the past, the team has usually done well in league. For instance, the '85 season's team tied La Canada for first place, and Dario Pirozko and Scott Geisler placed first and second, respectively, in singles. Despite this record, Dario declared, "Last year we were good, but this year we are better."

Junior Steve Huang serves an ace. 1986 was Steve's first year on the J.V. team.

Sophomore Andrew Wu hits a low forehand. Andrew was a very consistent player, according to co-captain Dario Pirozko.

As a single's player, David Yu gets ready to smash the ball for a winner.

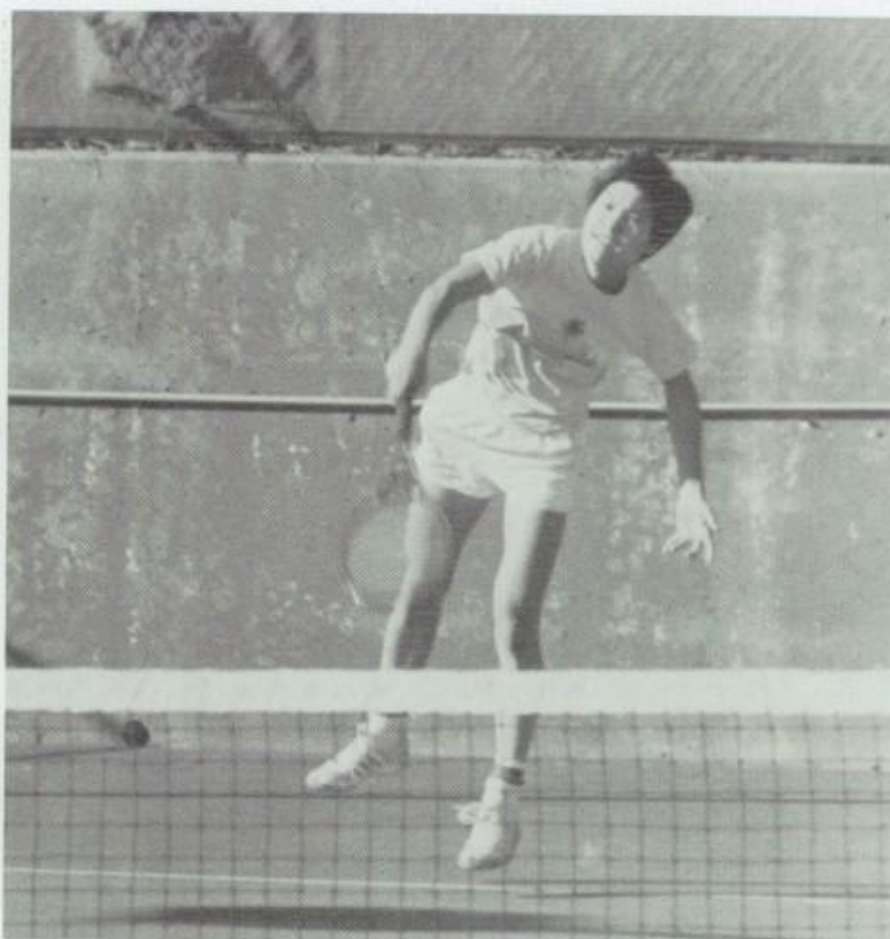

Taking it easy, Jim Pastecki begins a rally during practice. This was Jim's third year on the team.

Playing against Loyola, Hoon Park reaches high to serve. San Marino went on to win, 15-3.

Playing on a sunny day, Senior Chris Cruz rallies with a team member before a match. Chris was a co-captain this year.

Serving aggressively, Eric Wang watches the flight of the ball. Eric was a doubles player for Varsity Tennis in '85-'86.

Trying for a passing shot, John Fruttero drives the ball over the net. John was the top freshman player, according to Senior Chris Cruz.

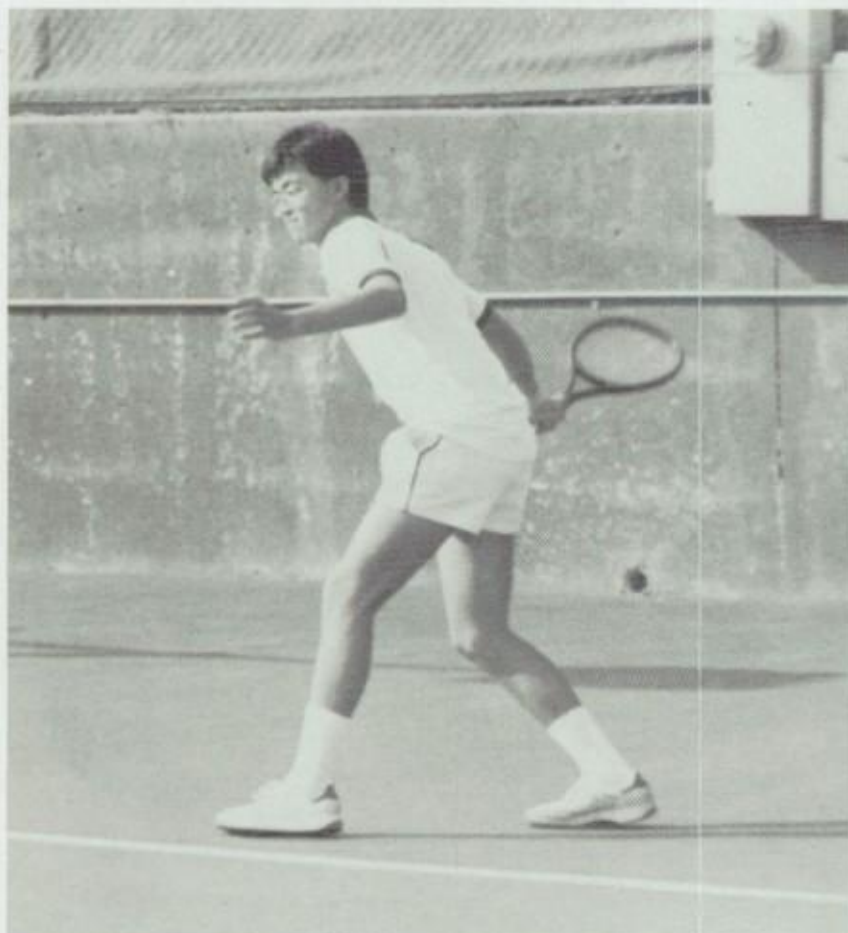

'Best Ever'

Team works toward CIF

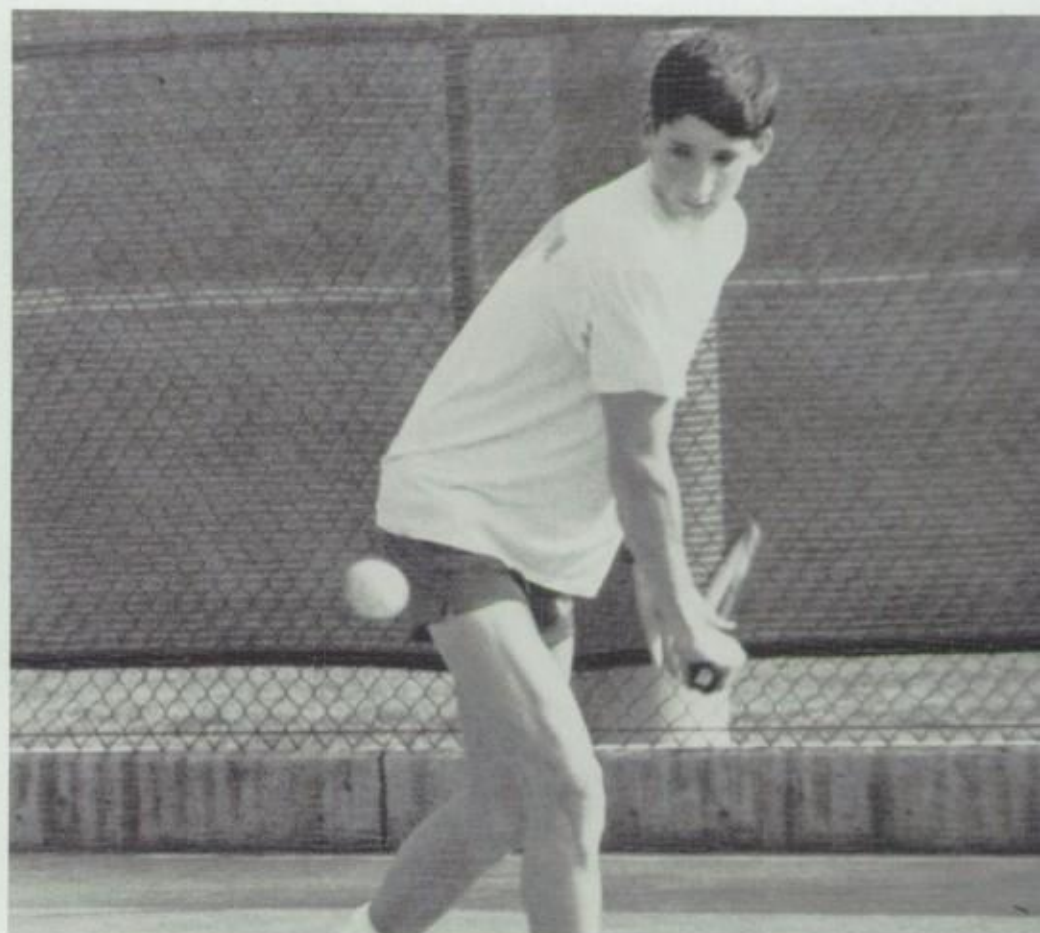

In '85-'86 the Varsity Boys' Tennis team was comprised mostly of experienced players. Sophomore Andrew Sheppert, Juniors Jim Pastecki, Sid Danenhauer and Hoon Park, and Senior David Young were the "nucleus" of the starting lineup, according to Coach Brian Chambers. "We are the best ever," stated Hoon Park during a preseason practice. "We really want it (league championship) badly. That motivation is going to take us far." Last season the team won the Rio Hondo League Championship. Talking of past traditions, Mr. Chambers mentioned the team's practice of having a party after every La Canada match: "Steak if we win, hamburger if we lose." Looking to the future, he hopes that Freshmen Brandon Johnson, Albert Kim, and John Fruttero will give the team a good outlook.

Looking for a winner, Albert Kim returns an opponent's shot. This was his first year on the team.

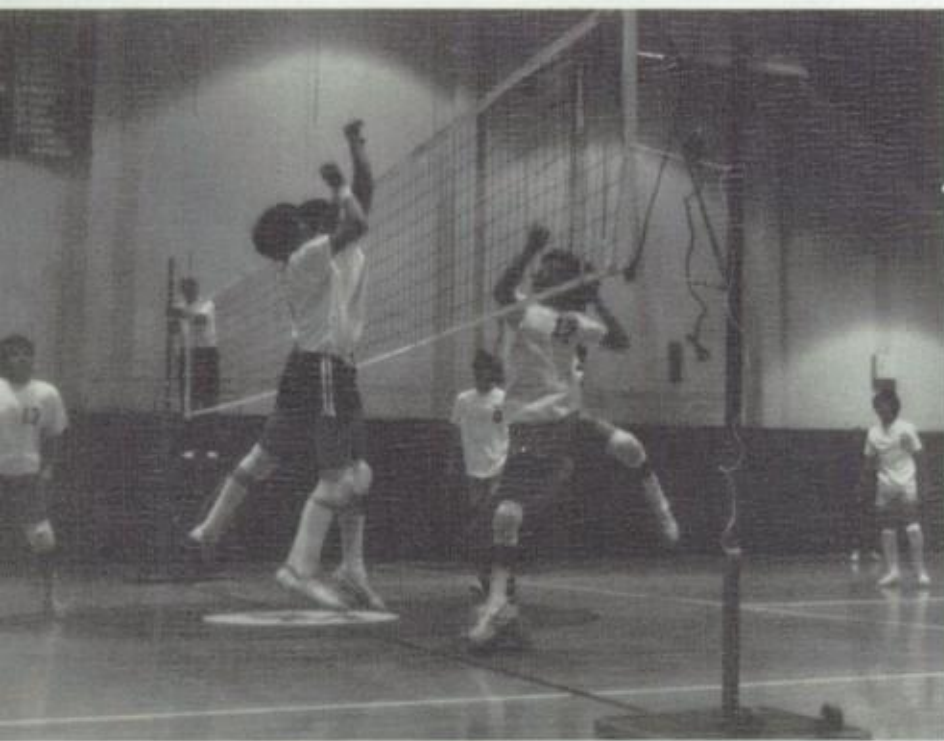

Concentrating on his best stroke, Sid Danenhauer prepares to power a backhand down the line. Sid will be the team's top senior next year.

Reaching for a forehand, David Young puts his weight into his shot. David was a co-captain in '85-'86.

Stroking a forehand, Andrew Sheppert shows his ability. This ability earned him the team's top singles position.

Promising Future

Team spirit prevails

In the past, Coach Jon Imamura had taught various sports, but this was his first year as the J.V. Boys' Volleyball coach. The goals he set for the team included playing time for everyone and improving the skills of each player for future varsity play. The highlight of the season, according to Mr. I, was the game against Hoover early in the season where they were down 14-8 in the third game and ended up winning. Manager Mikiko Takeda expressed, "Next year's team looks promising since there are a lot of freshman and sophomore members who will be returning." The captains of the '86 season were Mark Morgan and Jason Shih. Mark commented, "We're a very young team, but as the year progressed, we've proved that we are worthy opponents to anybody in our league." Mr. I concluded, "I'm really happy with the team spirit this year!"

Struggling to keep the game going, David Hsu succeeds in returning the ball. David admitted that daily practice really improved his skills.

Practicing their volleyball skills, Sophomores Josh Walters and Aaron Eichenlaub work together to block the ball. Working together was essential in order to be a good team.

Defending their team, Paul Ma and Phillip Heckendorn block the ball against Hoover. San Marino was down to Hoover, but they ended up winning.

Gathering in a huddle, the J.V. team gets together and shows team comradery. This is important for the future success of the team.

During a practice, Junior James Yang digs to pass the ball. Practicing skills was an important activity for every sport.

Jumping to spike the ball, Junior Yosh Nakahara scores against Hoover. San Marino went on to win the game.

New Looks

Team: 'well-developed,' 'united'

Coach Scott Cameron stated, "I think that the '86 Varsity Volleyball team is as far along in their development as a team as they have ever been here at San Marino. The team participates in the hardest league in CIF." Last year Mr. John Herren was the coach, and the team missed him. Captains Yosh Nakahara and Kumar Rao expressed, "Team unity is strong this year, and we think that it will benefit us next year more since our team is basically a junior-sophomore team." Some of the goals Coach Cameron set for his team were improving league record over last year and passing well enough to execute plays on serve reception. This season the team got new uniforms. According to Coach Cameron, the choice of dark blue tank tops and powder blue/white bamboo design shorts made his team a leader in a 'vant garde appearance on the court.

Thinking fast, Junior Scott Woodward keeps the ball in play and defends his team. Scott is one of the eight varsity lettermen who is returning for next year's team.

Developing Skills

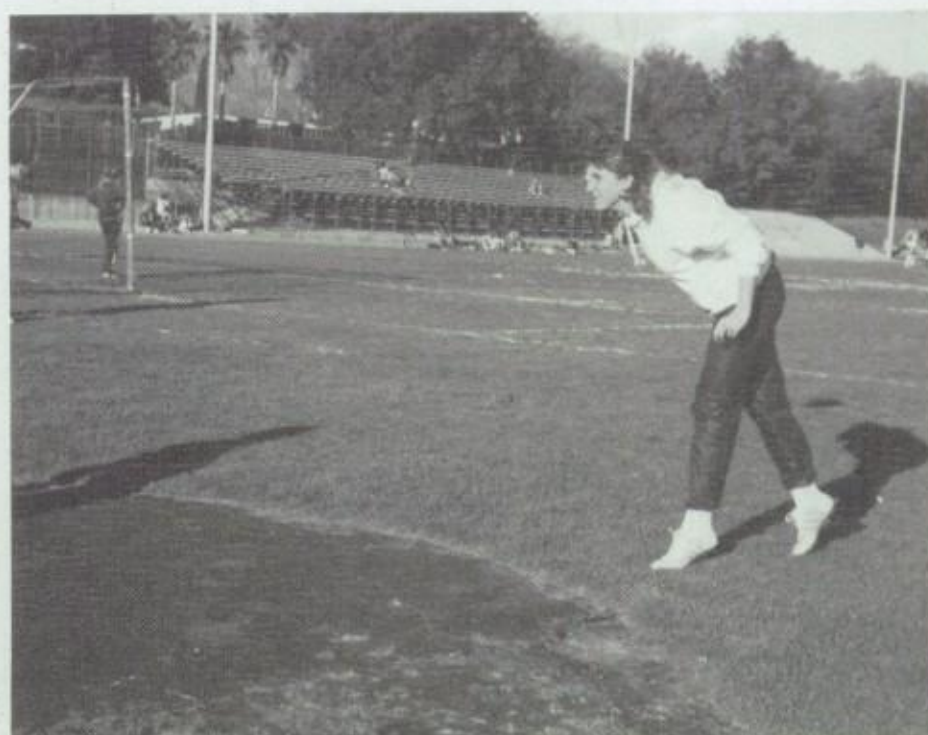

J.V. Soccer challenges opponents

In upcoming seasons, Coach Lesley Salo disclosed, "We will not be able to do a lot against Arcadia and other 4A schools because we don't have the experienced players, but we will work hard together to develop better soccer skills."

Junior member Leslie Walston added, "We are having fun, but at the same time, we're serious about the game. I feel that our team has improved since the season started."

Coach Salo noted that, unlike last year, this year's team had a very strong offense, and "an exceptional spirit which allows them to enjoy themselves while they are playing."

Last season, because of the lack of new players and their inexperience, J.V. Girls' Soccer was unable to perform well in league play against Temple City and South Pasadena, yet kept their endurance throughout the season.

With a goal in mind, Cynthia Frykman heads the ball.

New Goals

Girls emphasize strategy

Goals for this 1985-'86 season were improving teamwork, and playing skillful soccer. They believed this could be achieved through lots of practice and tournaments. The highlight of the season was the game against Temple City. Two things which made this team special were their sense of humor, and the respect the other teams had for them.

When asked about the outstanding players, Coach Beverly Davis revealed, "The whole team was very good — we work as a unit."

Unlike this year, last year's emphasis was placed on strategy rather than general skill development.

Senior captains Jennifer Amestoy, Jamie Dabao, and Stacey Goodreau will not be back for the '86-'87 season, but Coach Davis added, "there are many valuable players who will return for next season." These players include: Junior Kelly Genda, all league goalie; Junior Laura Saunders, the team lead scorer; and frosh starters Kelly Ching and Colleen Palic.

A Competitive Season

J.V. Soccer challenges opponents

Having a successful season, this year's J.V. Boys' Soccer team improved significantly over last year. Their skills are what made the team a tough competitor against their opponents, including their toughest opponents, Temple City and South Pasadena. The team worked together to obtain their many victories, and they strived to improve their techniques, which included dribbling, passing, scoring goals, and heading the ball. With these objectives in mind, the J.V. Boys' Soccer team looked forward to a very competitive and rewarding season. Looking ahead, the team hopes to improve its teamwork and game, and they hope to take the title as league champions. "We enjoy the challenge in the game, the skills we learn, and the intense competition involved with the other teams," commented Greg Geisler.

Team Work

Varsity soccer improves skills

"It's an aggressive sport that requires tremendous skill, conditioning, and intensity, and the players like the demands it imposes on them, and the challenge it offers," remarked Mr. Loren Kleinrock, coach of Varsity Boys' Soccer. According to Greg Scharlach, the team improved greatly over last year and a chance to be in the playoffs was in sight. Team work was the key issue, as the team began the season with a successful winning streak, including its first ever win against San Gabriel. Each member of the team put in his all, and it was this balanced effort that helped the team to play a very demanding style of soccer. In the future, the Varsity Boys' Soccer team hopes to strengthen themselves as a team and win the league championship.

A Stronger Team

Experience makes a difference

This year's J.V. Wrestling team was the strongest in years because many of the players had varsity experience. There were also many new additions to the team, which makes the future look more hopeful, according to J.V. team captain Brett Nicholas. When asked about the success of the season, team member Rod Reynolds replied that, "we had a lot of good young talent, plus the strengths of our seasoned wrestlers." The team went away with four overall victories, losing only to Schurr in their last meet of the season. The scores and the size of this year's J.V. Wrestling team reflect a contrast to last year's small and more inexperienced team.

Exceptional Effort

Team pulls together

The 1985-1986 Varsity Wrestling team had a predominantly successful season with several players leading the meets, according to Senior Eric Van Wagenen. This year's team captains who were David Ling, Lawrence Stone, Eric Van Wagenen, and Ara Kumjian were outstanding competitors along with a sincere general effort from the entire team. Co-captain, Eric Van Wagenen, commented that "the highlight of the season was being the first team ever to beat Alhambra in league competition since they entered the Rio Hondo League." Coming back after a less than successful year in 1984-1985, this year's Varsity team took several victories. Their experience from past years proved to be helpful steps toward this year's success. With four strong seniors on the team, Ara Kumjian, Eric Van Wagenen, Emilio Egeraige, and Lawrence Stone, the Varsity Wrestling team will need to pull together even more in the future.

'Success'

Young team rebounds

Last year the J.V. team went undefeated in league play and finished the '84-'85 year with a record of 18-1. The '85-'86 year was basically a year for the young team to rebuild. Fortunately though, the loss of many key players was counterbalanced by the dedication and talent of young newcomers. The team was led by two of these young players: Freshman center Jocelyn Rothbard, and Freshman guard Amy Okum. Coach Joyce Johnson, also new to the J.V. squad, felt optimistic about the '85-'86 season and termed it a "success." Next year's team should be strong with the return of many talented players. When asked how she felt about the '85-'86 team, Freshman Jocelyn Rothbard exclaimed, "We had a lot of fun together, and the unity we developed helped us grow as a team!"

CIF Berth

Team has high expectations

“We had a very mature team this year. Hard work and a strong camaraderie between the team and Coach Ellen Hall played a crucial role in our success,” commented Sophomore player Caryn Cranston. Last year, the Varsity team ended the basketball season with a 12-8 record, qualifying for CIF for the fourth consecutive year. As in past years, the '85-'86 team had a very successful start. First year Coach Ellen Hall thought the team had great potential and experience, an advantage they were able to maximize as they again qualified for CIF. Key players during the '85-'86 year were Senior center Crista Polich, and Junior forward Katie Owneby, who led the team in both scoring and rebounding. Coach Ellen Hall feels that the return of experienced players such as Katie Owneby and Caryn Cranston will certainly be important factors next year.

Showing enthusiasm, Caryn Cranston gives her teammate a high five after a particularly good play.

Team overcomes early injuries

Even though the Frosh Basketball team suffered several early injuries, the Frosh team with hard work and discipline won league with a 7-1 league record according to Coach Robert Reed. The only team that had beaten the Frosh team was LaCanada, a team which Coach Reed named as one of the toughest teams in the league. In the '85-'86 season, the outstanding players were forward Marty Wilhite for his point scoring, guard David Kadin for his defense and playmaking, and center John Fruttero for his rebounding and free throw shooting.

"I think if the present players return next year, I believe we will repeat as league champs," concluded David Kadin.

Better Than Expected

A player stresses unity

The Sophomore Basketball Team finished better than Coach Kevin Hall, a new coach for the sophomore team, expected. Coach Hall predicted that the team would finish with a 4-4 record. The team, however, ended their season with a 5-3 record. In addition, lead by Charlie Heinemann, the outstanding player named by Coach Hall, the team finished third in league.

"We lost two starters to the J.V. team," commented Charlie Heinemann, "but I think the team has to work together more next year."

Better Shooting

Fetters scores 30 in one game!

Coach Scott Cameron, who has been coaching basketball for 13 years, stated that one of the J.V. basketball team's future goal was to win league. In order to accomplish this goal, Sid Danenhauer stated, "We have to shoot better, especially in free throws."

In '85-'86 season, the game against Mark Keppel High School was one of the highlights of the year. The team came back from a 12-point deficit to defeat Mark Keppel. Throughout the season, John Fetters led the team in scoring until a season ending injury. Before this injury, John scored 30 points in a game against San Gabriel. This performance, as described by Coach Cameron, was one of the best offensive shows ever displayed by a San Marino J.V. player. Other outstanding players included guard John Paul Paciorek for his playmaking and forward Bob Heinemann for his rebounding.

Even though the team didn't win league, Coach Cameron expressed, "The team had a lot of team spirit."

Determined Titans

Boys improve on and off court'

Coach George Arms, who has been coaching San Marino Varsity Basketball for three years, disclosed the recipients of the '85-'86 Tournament awards. Senior Rob Norquist won the Pasadena/Poly Tournament; along with him was Senior Rob Kunzman. Junior Victor Yucullo won the Pioneer Tournament and received All-Tournament honors for the Titans. Rob Norquist, returning MVP for '84-'85, was the number-one scorer with an average of twenty points per game, estimated Coach Arms. He also added Senior Brad Kurk as the number two scorer and rebounder. Coach Arms referred to Rob Kunzman as a "smart player."

Coach Arms pointed out that the most exciting game was the convincing victory at San Gabriel. The Titans were determined to hold their own in perhaps one of the strongest leagues in the state.

Coach Arms predicted an improved year over last year's "miserable season." Although he cited that the Rio Hondo League is tougher this year than ever before. Blair, South Pasadena, La Canada, and Temple City were all ranked in the top eight of CIF. He saw reason to say that, "We must play our best to win."

Coach Arms held a goal to win, which he boasted, "We have done."

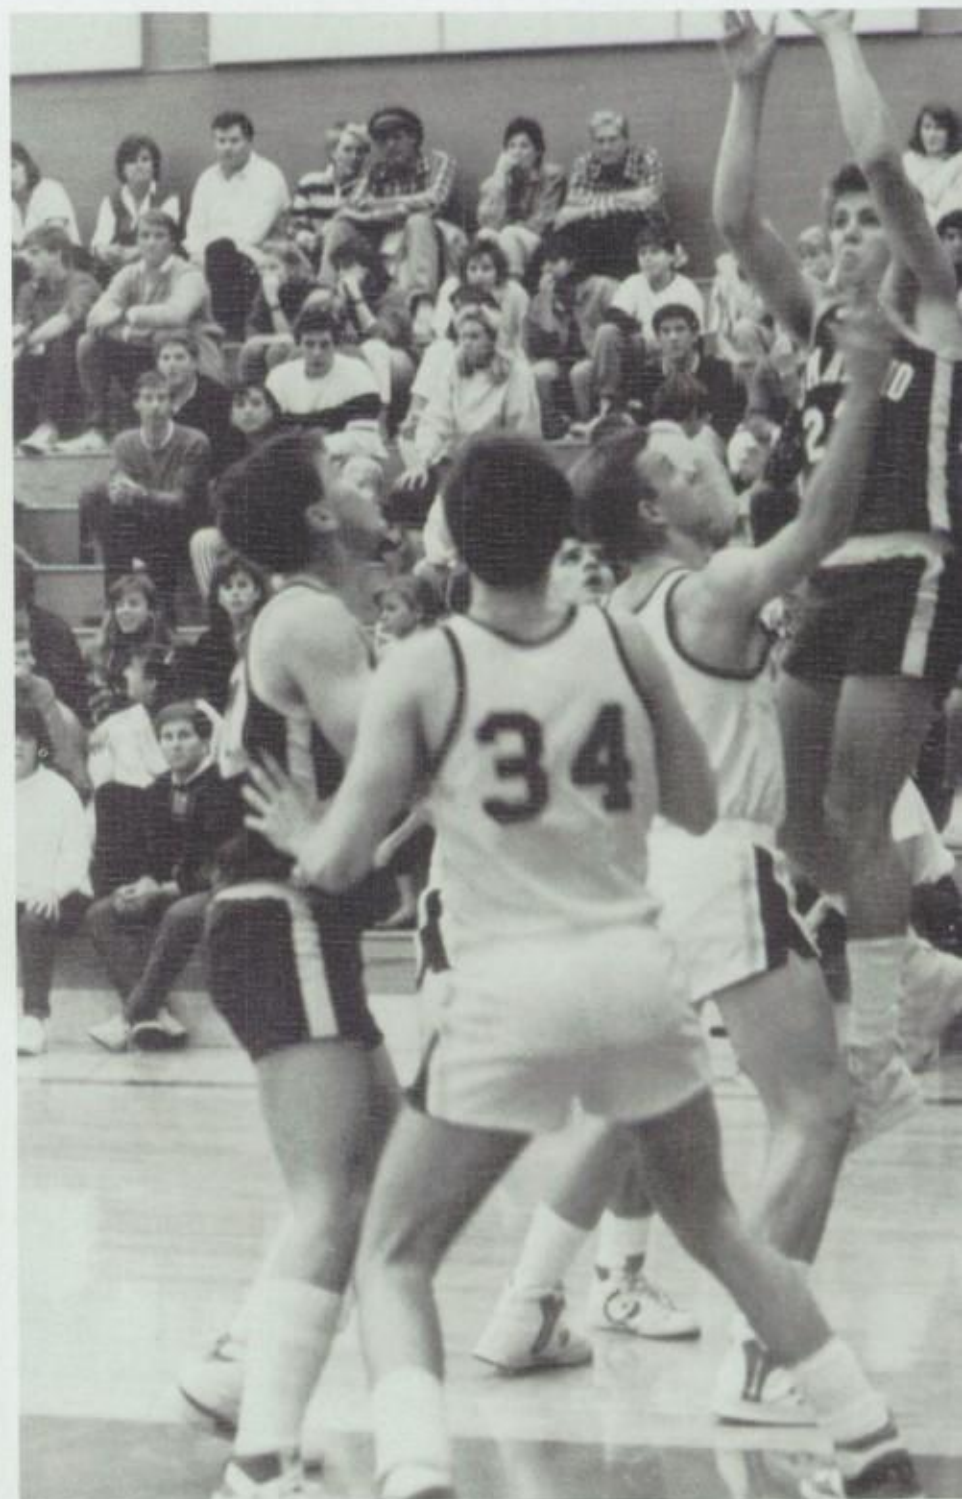

Victor Yucullo commented, "What we lack in performance, we make up for in character." Junior Sean Liske added, "The practices are tough, but it's worth it."

Coach Arms promotes team spirit at half-time. He has been coaching Varsity Basketball for over three years.

Releasing the ball, Senior Thad Linderman hopes for a successful free throw. Unfortunately, his contribution didn't lead to a victory.

Cross Country

Coach Stresses Participation

"I think there are a lot of kids at the high-school who could be participating in sports and aren't," stated Cross Country coach Mr. Andy Steben. Mr. Steben, who also is an assistant track coach at Occidental College, felt that the Cross Country teams had successful seasons considering the small size of the teams. In the past, the Cross Country teams were aligned in the 2-A division, a division for smaller schools. But due to San Marino's success in Cross Country, the CIF placed them in 3-A, a more challenging division.

In '85-'86, the Boys' Varsity team finished tied for second in league with Monrovia. The team was led by seniors Dean Palmer and David Guluzian and by juniors Erik Penn and Jim Nida. Dean placed first at the Dos Pueblos Invitational, while Erik finished third at Dana Hills. The highlights of the season, according to Coach Steben, were beating Monrovia, a divisional opponent, and competing well against Saugus, one of the best Cross Country teams in California. The best underclassmen runners were Albie Vollero, Eric Wang, Mark Morris, and Brian Sax.

The girls' team, although hampered by injuries, still managed to tie for third in league. The best girls' runner in '85-'86 was sophomore Jeannie Young. Even though Jeannie did not run as a freshman, she still was the third best individual runner in league. She also won fifth place in CIF preliminaries. Co-Captains Diane Pettit and Anne Overturf experienced injury problems in '85-'86. Diane suffered a chronic knee problem after the first meet and was sidelined until the last meet. Anne experienced stress fractures and could only run in races.

One problem all the San Marino Cross Country teams faced in '85-'86 was the size of the teams. Coach Steben felt there were runners at SMHS who, for some reason or another, did not participate. He thought that perhaps students were intimidated by the runners' hard work or their high standards. But Mr. Steben claimed, "We need more people out; there's no reason to be afraid of the sport." Coach Steben mentioned that he will coach again in '86-'87. He hoped that he would see perhaps fifteen to twenty runners next year. If he does receive that kind of extra support, he felt that the Cross Country program could be competitive in 3-A. Otherwise, he expressed a desire to return to 2-A. One other thing he wanted to see was a year-round coach to help the runners during the off-season.

Taking that extra lap after practice, David Guluzian and Kumar Rao work hard for the team. Boys' varsity tied for second in league with Monrovia.

Frisbee

Team participation decreases

The Frisbee team hopes to become more of a competing sport in the future. "They were just out to have fun this year," stated Mr. Jon Imamura, who has been the frisbee coach for the past ten years.

Sophomore Carrie Ogden commented, "Frisbee is a great sport, and it helps to have an encouraging coach. By the way, Mr. I, should we wear our tights?"

Some of the outstanding players in '85-'86 were Jeff Duncan, Charles Crist, Chris Cruz, and Jessica Schmidt.

This team's goals were to improve their skills to meet their self satisfaction. There is a specific number of people who were in the Frisbee class, but anyone was welcome to join the team at Lacy Park.

In the past, Frisbee did not count for P.E. credit, so people wanted to play for their own benefit, but now some members play only for credit. Mr. I feels that the team participation is decreasing each year. He hopes he will have a more serious team in the future.

Displaying his frisbee skills, Romeo Santiago catches the frisbee. Fun and competition is a part of frisbee at SMHS.

Practicing basic skills, Jenny Weyland and Haruyo Shibita improve their technique. The team worked on technique at after school practices.

J.V. Tennis wins championship

The '85-'86 Tennis team won the league championship and had an undefeated record, according to Coach Katy Trotter who is a new coach. She also stated that the '85-'86 Tennis team was made up of determined skilled players.

A second year member, Amanda Zimmerman concluded, "It was an overall good year. We became a great team and even better friends."

In the past, the J.V. Tennis team had been very successful and this year they worked just as hard to attain their goal of victory.

Ms. Trotter commented, "We all enjoyed playing our matches this season and we are looking forward to another successful season next year. This team is looking great to be the varsity team."

Some of the outstanding players were Tara Badie, Katie Knaphurst, Natalie Box, Elise Kerckhoff, and Pauline Liang, according to Coach Trotter. The highlight of the season was winning league.

CIF Champions

Championship rewards work

"Losing last year gave everyone on the team the incentive to not lose this year," stated third year member Linda Lee. Last season the Varsity Girls' Tennis team advanced to the semi-final round in CIF where they were eliminated by one point.

Outstanding records permeated this year's team, according to Coach Maureen Bryant. Linda Lee was undefeated this year in CIF, and she retained her all league status for the third year in a row. Tricia DeSpirito, Caryn Cranston, and Biljana Korac were ranked all league for the second year in a row. Linda, Tricia, Caryn, and Biljana also won their divisions at the Mayfield Tournament this season. They believed their toughest opponent was Thousand Oaks, but they remained undefeated with a 23-0 record for the season.

This season was unusual in that there were no senior members according to co-captains Linda Lee and Tricia DeSpirito, and they looked forward to another season of working together again.

When asked why they enjoy the sport, the team replied, "It is a fun and competitive sport. Everyone wants to be winners — it's only a matter of how much they really want to win."

As a third year member of the team, Tricia DeSpirito held the title of co-captain with Linda Lee in the '85-'86 team.

Team kicks back too early

“We won our first game so early that we started to relax,” stated Sophomore Kathy Salo.

Last year's team had a good season considering that it only lost two matches. Last year's team did well because the members worked together and they had fun, according to Coach Karen Maddox.

According to Coach Karen Maddox, “We have a very young, but skillful team that will develop into a strong varsity team later on.”

In the future, “The J.V. team should have a group of strong and successful girls,” stated Liza Kumjian, the team manager.

Varsity goes a long way

Coach Joyce Johnson stated that there is enough strength expected on next year's team to accomplish the goals which we were working for this year.

Sophomore Lucy Antoci said, "This year was fun, I was the only sophomore on the team, and I played more than I thought I would. I'm looking forward to next year."

According to Coach Johnson, "The team hasn't improved much, but considering that we only have six returning varsity players we're doing excellent!" If the girls had won the game against Temple City, they would have gone to CIF.

The goals for this year's varsity were to make it to CIF, tie for league champions, or to get second place. These goals were not accomplished, but the girls played hard, noted Coach Johnson.

Blocking the ball, Kara Wright and Karen Cooper prevent the opponents from scoring.

Calling a time out, Coach Johnson advises some of her team members.

League Champs

Frosh-Soph rebounds

"The Frosh-Soph Water Polo team was one of the strongest ever," according to Coach Burt Kanner. This year, the team won league while staying undefeated. Their "toughest" game came against arch-rival South Pasadena, in which the team held together in the final minute and came away victorious, 10-9. The award for Most Valuable Player went to Matt Johnson, Charlie Chamberlain was awarded Most Inspirational, and Toku Bannai received Most Improved. "I had a great time playing this year; I'm sure everyone did," commented the team's top scorer, Scott Graves; "We had a rad season." The team continued a winning tradition from past years, one that made San Marino a "feared" team by its opponents, according to Coach Kanner. With many players returning next year, the future is "advantageous," but Coach Kanner implies that the future and winning shouldn't be predicted now. "If we play well, I'll be pleased — even if we lose."

Firing hard, Will Bortz concentrates on scoring. Will, along with Ta-Lun Wu, was a co-captain this year.

First Year Success

Team 'jelled' in order to win

"In the past San Marino High School's J.V. Water Polo team was almost non-existent," according to John Beierle, J.V. Water Polo coach. In previous years, members from the varsity and frosh-soph teams were thrown together to play maybe one or two games a year. But this year, the j.v. team won the Rio Hondo League Championship with a 3-0 league record. Looking back over the season, Coach Beierle, a former SMHS student and Water Polo player, pointed out that the Burbank game was "definitely the best game of the season." Jeff Werden, who had four goals against Burbank and "carried the load offensively," took the Most Valuable Player award, while John San Giorgio took Most Improved Player. Ted Huang, "the quiet leader," received Most Inspirational, and recipients of Honorable Mention were Cliff Shiepe and Carson Brucker. As for the future of the team, Coach Beierle believes that "these guys will be a definite factor in their later years while on varsity," and that this team has set a precedent for others to follow. "At the beginning of the season, the guys were pretty green," commented Coach Beierle, adding, "But I knew they were good and strong — I could see it in their arms. Towards the middle of the season they 'jelled' together and really settled down. A very enjoyable season."

Stretching to reach the pass, John San Giorgio strives for victory. John was selected the Most Improved Player.

Under pressure, Sophomore Spencer Harris struggles to make a pass. The sophomores contributed a lot to the successfulness of the team.

Before the game against San Louis Obispo, team members gather at the side-deck to give each other support. Team support is very important in all sports.

Debating his options, Junior Eric Crabtree chooses to pass the ball to a nearby team member. Eric was classed as one of the most improved players.

Team plays competitively

Coach Jerry Wulf commented, "The 1985-'86 team used their individual strengths and weaknesses to become a strong competitive team." Like last season, this team went to CIF, but unfortunately they lost. The three co-captains, Ted Fogliani, Alex Coppersmith, and Charlie Hanzel contributed much to the team. Ted Fogliani, the most valuable player, was the leading scorer with 65 goals, and he received the All-CIF Honorable Mention. Alex Coppersmith was the leader on defense with 65 steals. Charlie Hanzel, the goalie, blocked 50% in League. One of the highlights of the season, according to Coach Wulf, was their win over Rowland. Wes Molino scored the winning goal with eight seconds left in the game. The two most improved players were Eric Crabtree and John San Giorgio, and the two most inspirational players were Ted Huang and Jon Apt. Jon commented, "The 1985-'86 team was a very strong one. With all the help the graduating team gave us, I think there will be a very strong team in the upcoming two years."

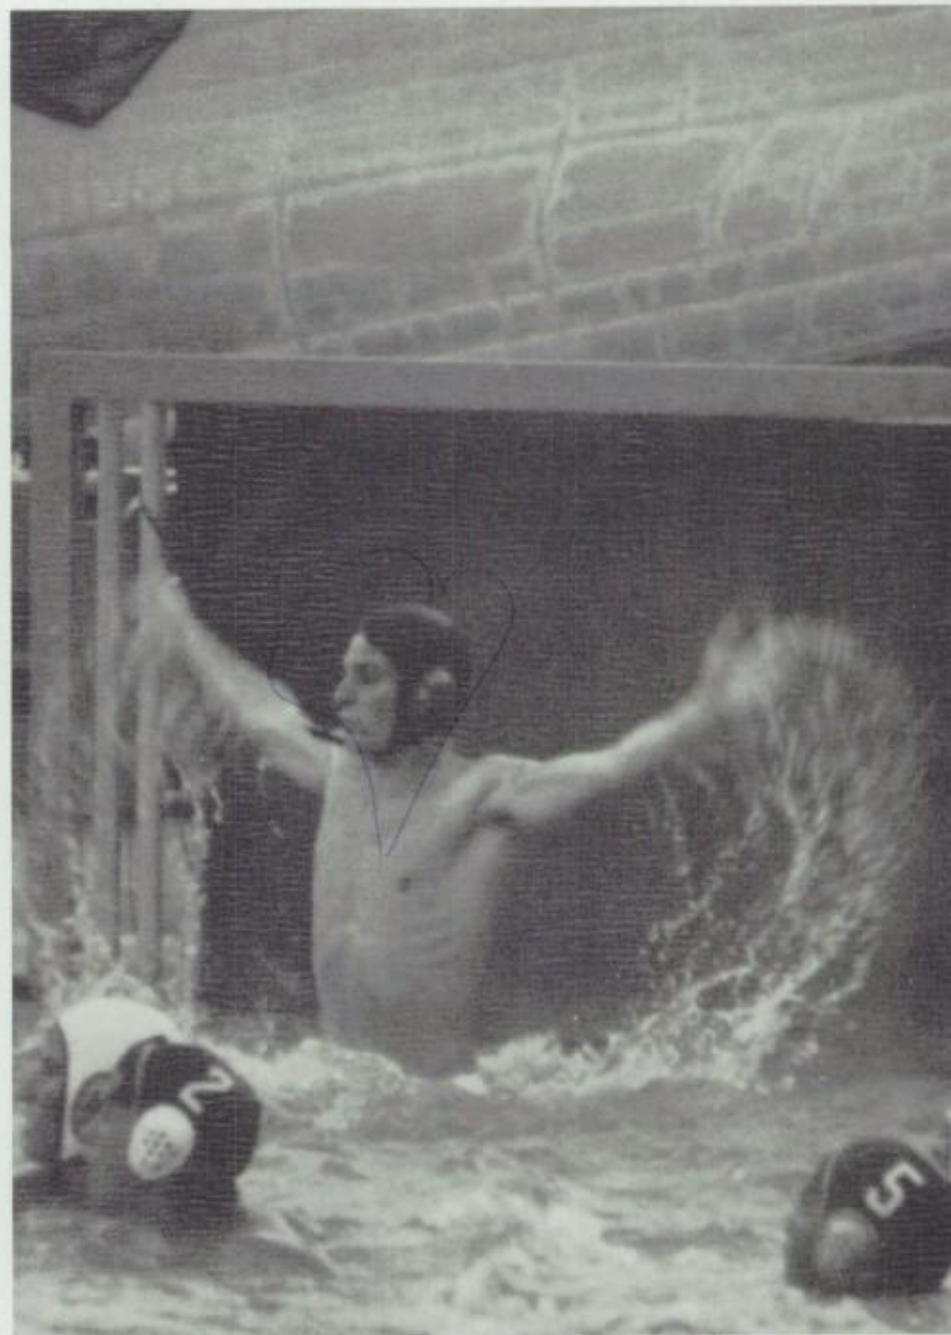

Advising the team, Coach Jerry Wulf and Assistant Coach Jon Bierlie propose a new strategy. Jon is the new assistant coach this season.

A Winning Team

Freshmen win Rio Hondo League

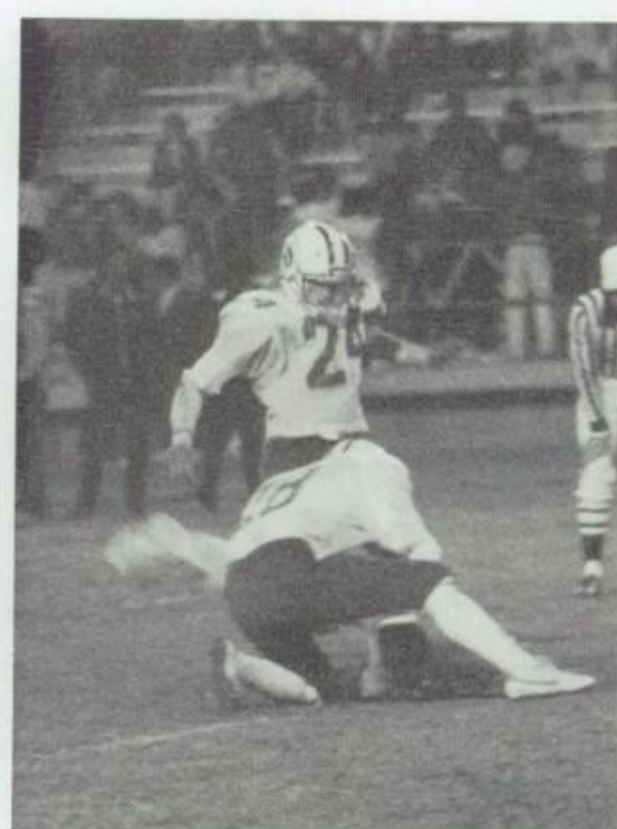

Coach Mark Hallam predicted a tough encounter with Blair, but added that the '85-'86 Freshmen team could beat them if they rehearsed defensively. Blair was undefeated and had just CRUSHED most of their opponents when San Marino met them in the season final. San Marino came back from a 14-0 halftime deficit to win the game 15-14, and the Rio Hondo League title.

Coach Hallam assessed that ALL the guys were outstanding as the winning season started. Jerry Dietrick, Jeff Dolan, and Robbie Santos made a great backfield trio. Matthew Kenyon and Chris Pauley were the team's best linemen, declared Coach Hallam. He also boasted, "Jeff Dolan, Robbie Santos, Matthew Kenyon, David Nelson, and Mike Metcalf were tops in defense." Coach Hallam thought it rather novel to lose the first five games by a combined total of 106 to 19 and then to come back and win league. He also remarked, "For me, Robbie Santos's touchdown-interception in the South Pasadena game, the 27-0 blasting of La Canada, and the comeback win over Blair were the highlights of the season."

Coach Hallam concluded that all teams are different. This one came in "skinnier than usual," then they showed what they could do. This was the most improved team he's ever coached, and the first in 15 years to win league as freshmen.

League Champions

Team takes first title in years

Ending the season with an 8-2 record overall and the league championship, the 1985-'86 Varsity Football team overcame many challenges in order to have a winning season, according to Coach Bill Maloney. Although the record would have been 7-3, Hoover's disqualification added on to San Marino's wins. Plagued by injuries early on, the loss of Bob Coberly, Emilio Egeraige, and Kevin Kelly for the majority of the season presented possible setbacks. Yet the Titan team responded with strong offense and defense and became the first San Marino team to win league since 1974.

Leadership from captains Kurt Brunner, Scott Robinson, and Jim Wagner helped to unify the group, and together the team outscored their opponents 196-120. Most valuable player on defense for the 1985-'86 season was Kurt Brunner, who led the Titan team with a total of 75 tackles. Phil Bradway was honored as most valuable offensive player, and totalled 643 yards rushing. Mike Harwell provided "fine defense" according to Coach Maloney, and Scott Robinson was "a good safety on defense." At the end of the season banquet Todd Binder received the award for most improved, and the coaches praised the team for an outstanding record.

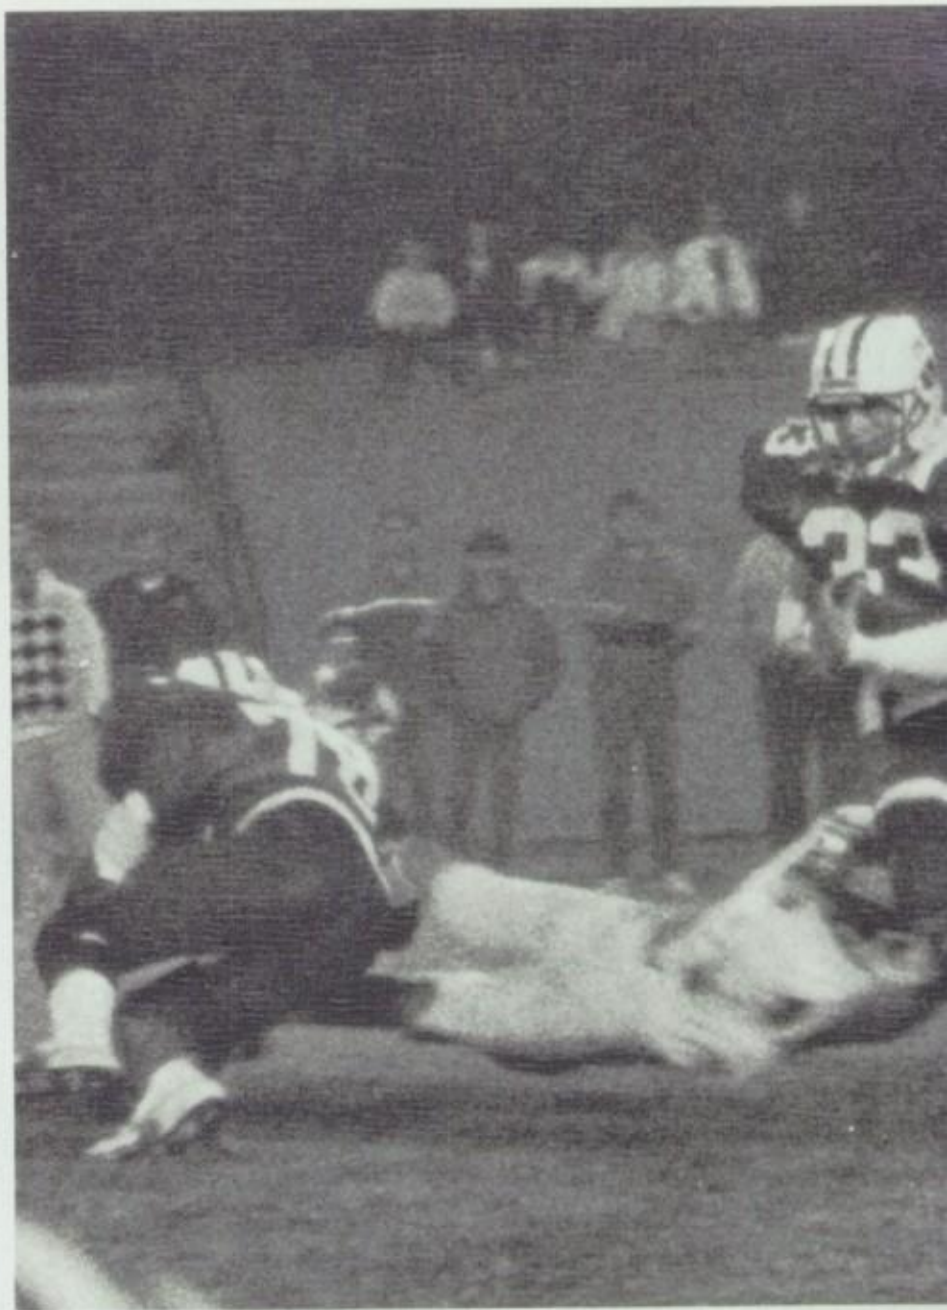

"There were many juniors who were good enough to play first string who had to wait this year, but they should provide for a strong team next year," assessed Coach Loren Kleinrock.

After the 28-12 win over Blair, the Titans celebrate. The victory over Blair gave San Marino the league championship.

Winning at La Habra

Marching Band had 'potential'

“We really worked hard, and the rewards were many,” stated the Drum Major Sarah Katz. Similar to past years, the band rehearsed their halftime shows every morning during zero hour. Having received numerous awards in the past, the band continued their excellence by winning first place in the La Habra Field Show Tournament under the direction of Mr. Thomas Murie. Not only did the musical group entertain the fans at halftimes during the Titan football games, but they also attended away games wearing their new band jackets. Furthermore, the band was invited to perform at Disneyland, at the Rose Bowl, during the UCLA high school band day, at the Southwestern Academy, and in the Homecoming Parade.

When asked about the Marching Band's future, John Hsu, a sophomore clarinet player, predicted that “the band has potential to improve because there are many talented young players.”

New Additions

Color Guard captures first place

For the first year, the Rifles, along with the Tall Flags, became a part of the San Marino High School Color Guard. Practicing at 6 a.m. every morning with occasional week-night rehearsals enabled the Color Guard, with brand new uniforms and equipment, to capture first place in the La Habra Field Show Tournament. Under the new direction of Mr. Thomas Vendiola, the Color Guard, along with the band, performed during Titan Football halftime shows. Also, the guards paraded down Huntington Drive during Homecoming, performed at UCLA band day, and marched at Disneyland. Furthermore, when the football season ended, the Color Guard became the Winter Guard, a group that competed during second semester. "All in all," as Connie Hsu, a Tall Flag member, described, "being a Color Guard was hard work, but it was worthwhile."

"In the future, more people should join the Color Guard," stated Pei-Su Shen, a Rifle member.

During a halftime show, Vivian Luo and other rifle members salute the Homecoming Queen and Princesses. Vivian was the squad's captain.

Quality Newcomers

Frosh gives support to teams

When speaking of the year as a whole, Frosh Yell 1985-'86 thought, "It involved a lot of time, but it was a good experience, and we all became closer friends."

Frosh yell consisted of Carla Figueroa, Juliandra Hamilton, Emilie Kerckhoff, Tomi Miller, Meredith Miner, and Mishel Wong. Pep advisor Jon Imamura noted that these girls had to support all the Frosh sports, which took a lot of work. When they weren't cheering at games, Frosh Yell was delivering team homes or practicing for their next performance.

Mr. Imamura also commented that Frosh Yell '85-'86 did a lot for their teams, and gained respect from upperclassmen.

Frosh Yell takes time out during the Homecoming Pep rally. Among other festivities of the day, they rode in the Homecoming Parade.

Pep Mascot Nicole Hampton takes part in the annual Homecoming Parade. This year Nicole was in charge of games and attendance.

Frosh Yell Mishel Wong, Carla Figueroa, Meredith Miner, Toni Miller, Juliandra Hamilton, and Emilie Kerckhoff.

Several pep members look on during a pep rally. These rallies were held nearly every week to support the athletic teams.

Zealous Performers

Varsity has fun on the job

The 1985-'86 Varsity Yell squad consisted of Jennifer Angeloff, Jamie Dabao, Katie Miliias, Crista Polich, Sara Schwab, and Shannon Seiter. Throughout the year these girls worked hard supporting all the Varsity sports, delivering team homes, and spending many hours practicing routines and cheers for pep rallies and games, according to pep advisor, Mr. Jon Imamura. He also commented that Varsity Yell did a great job with creative new ideas and enthusiasm.

In regard the squad's camaraderie, Crista Polich remarked that, "We get along so well, everything we do is fun."

Varsity Yell gets into San Marino spirit during a Varsity football game. The girls had the new experience of cheering in the stands among the crowd.

Hard Workers

J.V. puts time and effort into Pep

Pep advisor Mr. Jon Imamura commented that over the past year, J.V. Yell has put many hard hours into their duties as part of pep. This job involved a great time commitment as Carrie Gatsos stated, "J.V. Yell is lots of fun, but it takes a lot of time and work."

In contrast to the Varsity groups, J.V. Yell '85-'86, whose members were Ruthie Escalante, Carrie Gatsos, Kristi Horgan, Carrie Johnson, Kim Moore, and Stephanie Pearson, was responsible for supporting all of the J.V. sports. This involved a great deal of work for the squad.

As to future squads, J.V. Yell '85-'86 hopes many people try out, as long as they are prepared for the commitment.

Cheering while they ride down Huntington Drive, members of J.V. Yell enjoy the Homecoming Parade.

Riding down Huntington Drive, '85-'86 Song takes a moment to smile, Song performed various dances at lunchtime Pep Rallies.

Song: Mia King, Karen Minero, Kristen Sher, Jewellyn Goehner, Nicolette Angelos, and Tiffany Seden.

Flag: Jennifer Amestoy, Christine Maryott, Shannon Pecora, Heather Keith, Ann Comegys, and Karen Cooper.

Creative Dances

Song works on original routines

Encouragement of pep and performing song routines are the main jobs of Song. "Song wanted to be a unique group," stated Mr. Jon Imamura, "and their creativity made their dances new and different." During the pep rallies and also at the games, Song did their most part to arouse enthusiasm. Behind their presentations lie many hours of practice. Members of this year's Song were: Jewellyn Goehner, Tiffany Seden, Mia King, Nicolette Angelos, Kirsten Sher, and Karen Minero. Song agreed that even though there was much work, they had a lot of fun becoming the best of friends.

Getting together, the Flag Squad is excited about the Homecoming Football game. They were enthusiastic and ready to cheer for the football players.

Promoting Pep

Flag's flying high

"The '85-'86 Flag squad had good leadership and imaginative routines," commented Mr. Jon Imamura. Daily practices accounted for the many different eye-catching routines of Flag. Flag was composed of Jennifer Amestoy, Ann Comegys, Karen Cooper, Heather Keith, Christina Maryott, and Shannon Pecora. The Flag squad was always helping to promote pep and good sportsmanship at all football and basketball games. Flag hopes that in the future the Flag squad will be more important to San Marino High School.

Dedicated Girls

Officers work to organize Pep

Traditionally, the Pep Officers have served as the governing body of Pep, along with their advisor Mr. Jon Imamura. Throughout the year Pep Commissioner Julie Doyle, Treasurer Cher Morgan, Secretary Marianne Dick, and Mascot Nicole Hampton have strived to increase game attendance for all sports by improving pep rallies, publicizing games with signs, and involving athletes in the rallies. Julie Doyle initiated a monthly athletic newsletter which she hoped will continue in future years as a means of keeping the community aware of San Marino sports. "As a result of hundreds of hours that was put in by pep, San Marino saw a definite increase in school spirit. I was really pleased with our united efforts!" commented Julie.

Pep Officers: Julie Doyle, Cher Morgan, Nicole Hampton, and Marianne Dick.

Pep Reps: Aimee Whalen, Christa Gledhill, Lysette Glorioso, Lis Sheh, Karen Sanderson, Laura McGann, Julie Gerich, and Audrey Schulteis.

Involved Supporters

Pep Reps promote spirit

The Pep Reps' main job was to encourage the players, paint signs, and also decorate the central patio for homecoming. This year's Pep Reps really showed their spirit by not only painting colorful signs, but also by participating in the '85-'86 pep rallies. "It was a new, exciting experience to cheer for the varsity football games," exclaimed Lis Sheh. This year's Pep Reps were: Lis Sheh, Lysette Glorioso, Karen Sanderson, Laura McGann, Aimee Whalen, Christa Gledhill, Julie Gerich, and Audrey Schulthies. For the future Pep Reps would like to be noted for their helping the spirit of their school and also for their hard work in painting signs.

After cheering hard at a Varsity Football game Pep Officers take time to rest. During the game, the Officers called the cheers from the 50-yard line.

Received Excellence

Band looks at a superior rating

“We are practicing toward receiving a superior rating in the future. It is one of our ultimate goals,” commented Patty Hsu, secretary of the Concert Band. Concert Band, under direction of Mr. Thomas Murie, is a class where students are taught how to play their respective instruments and basic music theory. Concert Band also performed at graduation and in the Christmas and Spring Concerts.

Ever since the late fifties, Concert Band performed over thirty festivals. Last year, Concert Band received an excellence rating at PCC and Temple City festivals.

Miyo Miura practices her trumpet for festivals. Miyo was selected as a part of All Southern California Honor Band.

'Bigger and Better'

Disneyland invites Orchestra

"Compared to last year, this year's Orchestra is bigger and better," according to Mr. Thomas Murie, the director of Orchestra. Last year, Orchestra won several festivals. One of the festivals was sponsored by Southern California School Band and Orchestra Association. The Orchestra competed in the regional competition at San Diego after receiving a superior rating in this district festival. In addition Orchestra also performed at Disneyland.

In '85-'86, Orchestra played in the Christmas and Spring Concerts, at Senior Awards Assembly, and at the Baccalaureate. For the first year in the five year Orchestra's history, Mt. Miguel Southwest Orchestra Festival at San Diego invited the Orchestra to perform.

"In the future, Orchestra is going to be stronger because of good individual musicians," concluded Henry Wang, president of Orchestra.

Practicing before going on stage, Henry Wang rehearses his Christmas Concert pieces. Henry was the president of the Orchestra.

Students form new club

The members of the Red Cross Club were interested in helping the community. They went Christmas caroling at the South Pasadena convalescent home. Also, they made "friendship boxes," consisting of soap, tooth paste, toothbrushes, and other everyday items. The club sent these boxes to Columbia, South America. Some of the members also participated in CPR and First Aid classes.

"I am really excited that we had a large turn out," expressed Vivian Luo, president. Vivian, with the help of Jimmy Wu and Randall Luo, founded the club in November of '85.

Regarding the future of the club, Vivian replied, "I hope that we have a strong group of volunteers to keep the club going after I graduate."

Letterman's Club

Members support athletics

Letterman's Club main function was to raise money to support athletics. To be eligible for the club, the members had to receive at least one varsity letter in SMHS athletics. Two years ago, the club only allowed the athletes who had a varsity letter in at least two sports.

In '85-'86 the club sponsored the Senior-Faculty Basketball game in the spring. Also, the members worked in the concession stand during basketball games, and they organized and ran the Frosh Basketball Tourney. "Besides these activities, we are hoping to plan a varsity barbeque in upcoming years for all varsity athletes," commented Thad Linderman, president.

Early in the year, Kurt Brunner, a senior member, added, "I am expecting Letterman's Club to have a very outstanding year and to continue to be as successful as in the past."

Taking a break from skiing, Keith Forman and Justin Cuccia enjoy the sun and snow. Besides skiing, Keith played frisbee, and Justin was on the wrestling team.

Taking a jump, Eric Monteleone attempts to do a backscratcher. Eric went to Utah with the Ski Club over Christmas vacation.

Ski Club

Skiers enjoy annual trips

In prior years, the Ski Club has gone to both Utah and Lake Tahoe. The members continued this tradition in '85-'86 by participating in the trip to Utah during Christmas vacation. They went once before Christmas and once after. Also, during Lincoln and Washington's birthdays, the club went to Lake Tahoe.

Chris Cruz, a senior member, commented, "The trips provide an opportunity to go to resorts the students wouldn't otherwise go to."

Cookies Galore Officers Claudia Maldonado, treasurer; Jane Hsu, president; and Stephanie Quan, vice president.

Cookies Galore

Cookie lovers remain dedicated

“Cookies Galore is a club that is open to everyone who is interested in exchanging recipes and just having fun,” expressed club president Jane Hsu. Cookies Galore was formed last year as an expanded version of the Old Mother’s Cookie Club. The club welcomed all students that wished to participate and had filled out an application. The members gathered once a month to sample and exchange recipes. As well as providing 50 dozen cookies for the Coronation, they also held a recipe and cookie contest in November. In the future, Cookies Galore hopes to expand and raise money to help support the ASB.

Seniors bake and enjoy cookies

“FACCCC is fun because we can get together, talk, eat, and have a good time,” commented Big Chip, Victoria Deise. The highlight of last year’s activities was the presence of Willy Amos at the annual Christmas banquet. Willy told the girls his life story, and the group was later permitted to visit the cookie plant in Calabassas. The club was started by a former SMHS principal, Mr. Jack Rankin, in 1978. The club began the ’85-’86 year with a pizza dinner in early September to organize and start the year off. Bake sales were held once a month, and the girls celebrated each member’s birthday during the year including Dr. Gary Richard’s, the advisor. The annual Christmas banquet was held in December as a reunion for the past and present members of the club. Other activities were the escargot-roast beef dinner given by Dr. Richards, the only catch being that everyone must try the escargot. Each year in June the girls select a junior to succeed them. Next year’s hopes are that the Christmas banquet, birthday celebrations, bake sales, and escargot-roast beef dinner will be continued.

Latin Club

JCL continues tradition

Future plans for the growing Latin Club include the traditional visit to both the state and national conventions, as well as hopefully more activities and field trips. As State Vice President Jarrold Neal profoundly commented, "Whether it be torch or dust or Ancient Rome we bear, we bear it as a token for tomorrow." As in past years, Junior Classical League sponsored the sale of candy in order to raise funds to support the club's participation in the athletic and academic competition at the JCL state convention. The funds also enabled two officers of the club to attend the JCL national convention. Other activities of the '85-'86 year included various field trips and a toga party. The Latin Club was created in 1952, the same year SMHS was established, for those students having taken one year of Latin or those who were currently enrolled in the course who had an interest in the study of Latin and Roman heritage.

JCL Officers: Diana Yeh, president; Jarrold Neal, state vice president; Cynthia Bradley, secretary; Nelson Mills, treasurer; and Shirley Chang, vice-president.

Art Club Officers First Row: Lysette Glorioso, president; Rob Gledhill, treasurer; Second Row: Joseph Chen, secretary; and Sara Kennedy, vice president.

Art Club

Members explore creativity

The Art Club hopes to continue its promotion and expansion of interest in art and to become more involved in campus activities. As Mrs. Joanne Connor, advisor of the club, explained, "Art is communication. The Art Club would like to work with and help other clubs during the '85-'86 year." Again the club members sold candy bars in October to sponsor their field trip to the J. Paul Getty Museum during the spring with JCL. The club basically intended to educate students interested in art and the myriad of aspects included within the field. In the past, the Art Club has also contributed their assistance in several different areas. They have donated books and works of art to the library, sent students to art school on weekends, and helped the Art Department at SMHS pay for some of their supplies and equipment.

Creative Writing

Members show writing skills

The purpose of the Creative Writing Club was to produce at least one periodical a year. This magazine consisted of short stories, poems, and artwork. Anyone with an interest in writing was eligible to join.

"Our members are bright young people who can write well," remarked Mike Walters, president.

In previous years, the club has produced as many as three magazines in one year. Looking ahead to future years, Mike commented, "We want to continue to keep writing good things that people will want to read."

Thespians

Membership is an honor

In '85-'86 the Thespians put on three plays: Night Watch, a murder mystery; For the Defense, a courtroom drama; and Auntie Mame, a comedy. Also, the Thespians were responsible for the direction of the Frosh-Soph One Acts. Much time was expended in rehearsing the plays. Typically, a participant spent two-to-three hours per day for five weeks. Included in the activities of the club were field trips to television studios. Thespians observed the production of network programming.

According to Laura Collins, the club's president, "There are a lot of promising actors. I still see the club going strong in the years to come," explained Laura.

In order to become a Thespian, an actor must have one hundred hours of stage experience or to have performed in a play. Since the requirements are objective, the Thespian club is more of an honor club. "The Thespian club is not just another service club, its an honor society," stated Laura.

Club sponsors foreign students

"S MHS is happy to host Dunia Mittner from Padova, Italy and Lester Englund from Bremen, West Germany. We hope they had a nice time here, and we're glad AFS was able to facilitate their stay in our country," remarked Brian Hill, president of AFS.

AFS began in order to correlate with the national club called AFS International. In the past 25 years, the members have hosted several students from different countries. The club has raised several thousand dollars for the organization and sponsored AA's (Americans Abroad) to many different countries.

To participate in AFS, the students filled out an application and paid three dollars for dues. The club raised money by selling See's suckers, which was always traditional. They had a pizza party at Shakey's, in November, in which part of the profit went to AFS. The club also had a party in the spring.

Looking ahead to upcoming years, Brian concluded, "We hope to continue to help future AFS students and our own AA's have a great trip."

Cosmopolites

Club learns about foreign cultures

"I hope that Cosmopolites will continue to emphasize the understanding of different cultures," expressed Patty Hsu, co-president of Cosmopolites. Mrs. Kristen Koiles, advisor, added, "I am truly proud to be an advisor of a club with such valid goals. We hope to foster cultural understanding and have a positive impact on fellow students at SMHS."

Cosmopolites, a foreign language club, was made up of students who have taken a foreign language class or spoke a foreign language. The members attempted to broaden their horizons by participating in educational and cultural activities. The students visited the John Paul Getty Museum and the Pacific-Asian Museum. They also went to Olvera Street in December and attended plays at the San Gabriel Civic Auditorium.

In addition to these field trips, Cosmopolites helped to sponsor the Christmas orphanage drive. They collected food and money from students and local markets, and they sent it to an orphanage in southern Mexico. About one-third of the funds that the orphanage receives every year come from Cosmopolites.

While discussing the orphanage drive, Mrs. Kristen Koiles gives the collected money to Sister Guatalupe. Cosmopolites held this annual drive before Christmas vacation.

Gathering up food for the orphanage drive, Patty Hsu directs Tricie Constenla to the van. Cosmopolites collected food and money for the orphanage in southern Mexico.

Getting Stronger

Team remains competitive

In '85-'86, in addition to taking tests at lunch, the Math Club members went to competitions at Pomona College, Occidental College, and Cal Poly. In order to compete, members had to qualify to be a part of the Math Team, a team which represented the club at competitions.

"Many of last year's Math Team members who received first place in the Cal Poly Royal Math Competition remained on '85-'86's Math Team," commented Vincent Wang, the club president. Not only did last year's team win first place at Cal Poly, but they also received fifth in the Bay Math League competition.

"Next year, I believe that the team will be stronger because we will try to recruit more underclassmen to participate," Vincent Wang concluded.

Breaking Records

Team holds promising future

The speech and debate team, which belongs to the National Forensic League, has captured all but one sweepstakes for the past three years under the advisor, Mr. King Stuart; likewise, for the past three years, the team set a record for the most finalists sent to the state tournament by a high school.

In '85-'86, the team consisted of novice, junior varsity, and varsity speakers, including anyone who was interested in speaking and who wanted to join the team. Throughout the season, the team traveled to other high schools to compete on Thursday and Friday afternoons and Saturdays.

"We have some promising new freshman speakers who will be the major contributors to the speech and debate team in the future," concluded Wen-Ching Chen, the vice president of NFL.

Titan Shield

Newspaper modernizes

In the past, the high school newspaper staff has published 12 issues of the Titan Shield a year. Despite financial challenges, the '85-'86 staff was able to do the same. This staff was the largest ever, and according to Mrs. Lou Ann Fuentes, advisor, they exhibited a lot of leadership. This was partly due, she said, to the fact that "the editors are highly organized and involved."

The co-managing editors Caroline Reinhard and Chris Miller instituted several changes in an effort to modernize the newspaper. Among these was the banner change on the front page. Their goal was to create a neat and streamlined effect.

The staff hoped to purchase new equipment in the future such as, perhaps, a word processor and copy type-setter to insure the publication of all 12 issues. Mrs. Fuentes felt that "the effort toward excellence throughout the year will result in increased outside support for the future."

Titanian

Staff implements new ideas

According to Mrs. Lou Ann Fuentes, yearbook advisor, the '85-'86 year went "extra smoothly because of the high quality students on the staff." She credited this in part to the continued close connection with the Huntington journalism class. Five incoming freshmen, all from this class, resulted in more underclassmen on the staff than in previous years. '84-'85 saw the formation of a photography class. This group, instructed by Mrs. Bonnie Studt, continued to supply photographs for the Titanian.

The co-managing editors, Wen-Ching Chen and Victoria Deise, developed the '85-'86 theme of "Titan Pursuits." Wen-Ching attended a summer yearbook camp on the USD campus and credited many of the new ideas implemented in the Titanian to this camp. Kim Berry, Senior Section editor, also attended.

Mrs. Fuentes and the editors considered the year's layout to be the most complicated style ever. However, Kathleen Shanahan, Ads editor, commented: "The quality of the yearbook is important because it is something the whole student body will be looking at." In the future, the returning yearbook staff hoped to head toward a more modern rather than traditional layout style.

In-Touch

Group helps students

In-Touch provides a confidential counseling service for students on campus. This service club enlists student counselors who show a willingness to learn and a sense of responsibility. "We look for people who have a sincere interest in helping others," stated Miss Sue Trayer, club advisor. The student members improve their self-awareness and communication skills by being in the school In-Touch class. During the year, the students used their knowledge to counsel other students in dealing with personal problems. In addition, the group within itself offers opportunities for the members to discuss their own personal feelings and issues in their lives. In the future, In-Touch hopes to expand its services to become more available to SMHS students.

Easing Tensions

Student Relations Board founded

Newly established in the 1985-'86 school year, the Student Relations Board was formed to promote better student relations in the school. "Just getting started was the most formidable obstacle for the board," stated Anne Overturf, SRB member. Despite this difficulty, the SRB accomplished many projects. Among them were a letter in Chinese sent to Asian parents to encourage student participation, and a cultural skit demonstrating Asian and American lifestyles. The SRB presented the latter project during Cultural Awareness Week.

Throughout the year, the board met to discuss school conflicts and problems. During these sessions, which were open to all interested students, the members brought forth issues centered on the primary prejudices in the school. With these unconcealed feelings, the students promoted their ideas and projects. As SRB founder Jeff Lin disclosed, "Hopefully, this club will improve relations between Asian and Caucasian students, and thus improve our school atmosphere."

Discussing new projects, Tomi Imai, Junji Toshima, Steven Trowbridge, and Joseph Chen attend a SRB meeting.

JAB

Students support their class

"The Junior Advisory Board helped spur class spirit and participation in the Junior Class," praised Junior Class President David Rose. In past years the JAB has primarily been an organization established to promote class activities. In 1985-'86, the JAB continued the tradition by building floats, maintaining the concession stand, sponsoring a car wash, and initiating an after basketball-game dance. The board members integrated many ideas from former years with new projects for 1985-'86. For the future "the JAB hopes to expand its functions for their class," commented JAB member Yasushi Nakahara.

Coed Service Club

Zethusians remain active

According to Claudine Mauriello, club president, "The 1985-'86 year went well for the Zethusians."

Zethusians, a coed service club, was organized in 1971 and remains the only present coed service club on campus. Last year, the group obtained a new advisor, Miss Ellen Jackson, returning this year, and developed the goal to be more service-oriented than social. Claudine also stressed the continued success of the Candy-Cane-Gram sale along with the sponsorship of an Indonesian child through Save the Children. Additionally, members conducted two spring car washes, held bake sales once a month, and aided the set-up of Grad Nite.

The club hopes to hold fundraisers and contribute services similar to these events in future years. Zethusians also expect to proceed in meeting their goal of maintaining a "traditional" service club.

Anticipating the Christmas spirit, Michael Zung and Darren Connell sell candy cane grams at lunch. The Zethusians delivered the grams during homeroom.

Preparing candy cane grams, Claudine Mauriello and Jeff Durcan help the Zethusians in their annual fundraiser. Claudine has been actively involved in the club for four years.

More Projects

Interact improves school grounds

Interact, after the cancellation of Key Club, carried on as the only boys' service club on campus. As a result, they had to take on new projects and responsibilities.

According to club members, Interact looks forward to more new projects and in participating in work days with both the Omegas and Amicians in coming years. One project they hope to add to their efforts is the painting of a SMHS banner in the boys' gym. Chris Miller, president, commented on the club's efforts: "These projects as well as specific school improvement activities always affect much needed clean-up."

This year the club inspired spirit in the school while raising money by jointly sponsoring, with the ASB, the sale of Titan Tumblers. They additionally sold programs preceding football games and put up the "Christmas house" at the bus stop on Huntington Dr. Services similar to these in the past were Grad Nite construction and painting of both the new darkroom and the SM logo by the bleachers.

Smiling at the crowd, Omega members ride with style in the Homecoming Parade. For many years, Omegas has participated in this parade.

During a meeting, Jennifer Wilcott answers questions about upcoming events. Jennifer was president of the '85-'86 Omegas.

Omegas

Girls aid in school activities

Omeegas exists primarily to serve the school. They raised money by having bake sales and holding other fund raisers. The girls worked at Back-to-School Night, making and serving fruit kabobs. They also served food at Cabaret Night in November.

To join the club, the members filled out applications and attended interviews. Among other things, the application asked them to reveal their most embarrassing moment and plan a service project. The interview allowed them to share their personal feelings. Jennifer Wilcott, president, commented, "This year the girls were definitely more involved and ready to work for the school."

The club has had pumpkin sales to raise money in past years. They also visited the Granada School for the deaf. They performed puppet shows and worked with the children.

Regarding the future of the Omegas, Jane Hsu, vice president, predicted, "It will be a good club because the juniors seem responsible and capable of handling everything."

Amicians

Members help freshmen girls

In past years, Amicians have been in charge of the Big Sister/Little Sister program. The members held a breakfast on the first day of school to help the incoming freshmen girls gain confidence about high school. In addition to this program, the club donated money to an orphanage in Mexico. The girls also participated in the Run Across Los Angeles Marathon. They handed out t-shirts and gave water to the runners.

To be a part of these activities, the girls filled out an application, and the cabinet interviewed them. Amicians held bake sales during snack break and sponsored the annual Christmas Dance, to raise money. They will continue with these activities in upcoming years.

Commenting on '85-'86, Patty Ogden, president, replied, "The members are really dedicated and inspired to be a service to the school."

CSF Achievers

Members strive for excellence

When asked about the '85-'86 year, CSF president Julene Penner commented, "This year was very successful because the members of the club really made a concentrated effort to help support the school." During the '84-'85 year the club began a new tradition by holding a lasagna luncheon to begin the year and to start planning the year's activities. These activities for the '85-'86 year included the annual banquet held in honor of the CSF Gold Seal Bearers and the Prometheans Honor Society in June at the Pasadena Hilton and the sale of Clark Milk Chocolate bars in the spring. The funds raised by this sale were donated to provide scholarships for two of the members and to aid ASB through the contribution of money and supplies. CSF advisor Mrs. Linda Wade stressed the enjoyment she received working with such a talented group of students and expressed her hope that the club can be an even further service to the school next year.

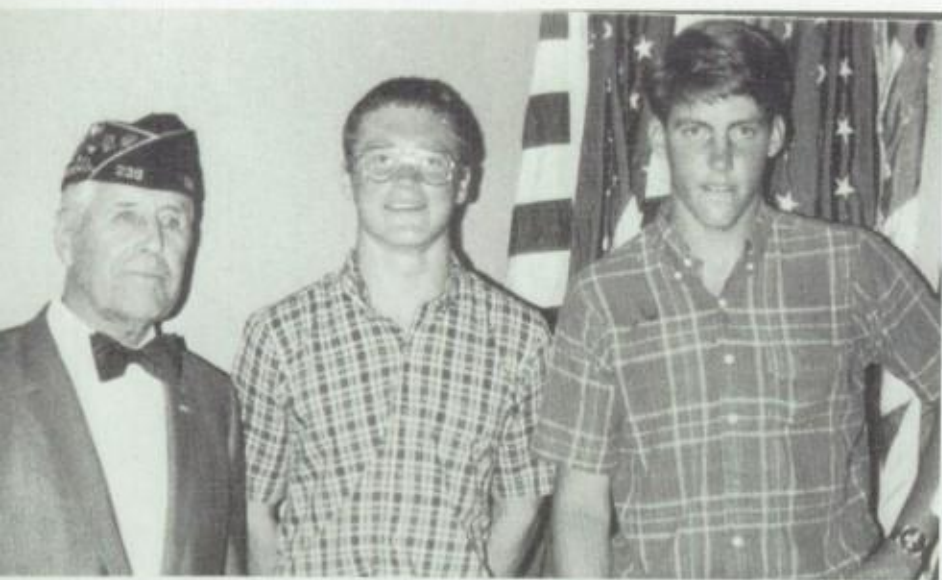

CSF Officers: Michael Zung, secretary; Jennifer Angeloff, vice president; Julene Penner, president; Henry Yu, treasurer.

CSF Seniors Front Row: Diana Yeh, Joyce Wu, Patty Hsu, Dilys Huang, Julene Penner, Jennifer Angeloff, Tiffany Seden, Dana Otto, David Galuzian, Edward Richards, Stella Lau, Brenda Quon; Second Row: Rob Kunzman, Ted Fogliani, Dean Palmer, Caroline Reinhardt, Jennifer Amestoy, Anne Overturf, Mikiko Takeda, Julie Doyle, Jewellyn Goehner, Victoria Deise, Colleen Derenia, Pauline Liang, Allison Lee; Third Row: Kim Berry, John Wohl, Jason Rothbard, Todd Binder, David Ling, Lesley Stanford, Liz Tinker, Lynne Chao, Chris Cruz, Vivian Luo, Jimmy Wu, Stephan Pastis; Fourth Row: Henry Yu, Steven Trowbridge, Henry Wang, Shiou-Dar Su, Chi-Wei Lin, Chris Miller, Vincent Wang, and Albert Woo.

Sharing a room, Julene Penner became friends with Joelle Pennington, of Lake Isabella, CA. The two spent the week together at Girls' State.

Boys'/Girls' State

Students establish mock gov't

"I had a fantastic time at Boys' State '85, and I hope next year's group has as rewarding an experience as I did," reflected Edward Richards, a participant in the Boys' State program. Boys' State and Girls' State are consecutive, one-week camps in which selected students from California high schools participate to learn about government. Learning by doing, Edward Richards, Vincent Wang, Brad Kirk, and Julene Penner spent a week raising Boys' and Girls' State money, campaigning for office, initiating new laws, and in short, running the mock governments at city, county, and state levels. The students were chosen on the basis of their scholarship, leadership, character, and citizenship qualities.

At Boys' State, which involved 900 boys separated into nine counties and twenty-seven cities, Edward, Vincent, and Brad participated actively. Edward and Vincent ran for and won the offices of County Treasurer in separate counties. In addition, both were attorneys while Vincent was also a member of the newspaper staff. Choosing not to campaign, Brad was named Sergeant of Arms to the Senate, a position awarded for political party service. While at Girls' State, Julene campaigned for the office of Lieutenant Governor. She affirmed, "It didn't matter if I won or not, because the purpose was to learn and meet new people — and that I did!"

Boys' and Girls' State have been annual activities for SMHS students. As Vincent praised, "It was one of my most memorable experiences because of the high quality of the program and the participants there."

ASB

Leaders cope with school issues

As in past years, the Associated Student Body officers continued to support and supervise school activities. ASB kept the traditions of sponsoring the Coronation, selling ASB cards, providing the Homecoming lunch and ice cream social, posting messages on the marquee, and learning how to improve their functions by attending an ASB retreat at Excelsior High School. In addition, ASB initiated new projects including Titan fundraisers, Cultural Awareness Week, and a student-faculty softball game.

More importantly, ASB worked to help improve the atmosphere of SMHS. Meeting daily during fourth period, members discussed topics and ideas dealing with student-teacher and Asian-Anglo relations. "It gets to a point when you have to stop talking and start doing," commented ASB President Rob Kunzman. "We think we're doing something this year." ASB worked hard on dealing with conflicts instead of merely talking about them. Their achievements are evident through the many ASB-sponsored activities, of which Cultural Awareness Week stands out. During these series of presentations, ASB provided informational seminars and encouraged students to attend. Another example of their enthusiasm to help the school was the student poll distributed on campus. ASB used the data from these polls to create new projects. "We tried to provide the student body with activities they would enjoy and ones that would encourage spirit and participation," expressed Victoria Deise, ASB Activities Commissioner.

Performing their duties, Kevin Connell, Mylene Duyvestein, and Carolyn Stussi use their fourth periods to plan ASB activities. ASB helped increase class spirit and participation.

Selling Titan Tumblers, Rob Kunzman, Sean Diaz, Victor Yacullo, and Stephan Carrozzi help raise money for the school. ASB sold Titan Tumblers, caps, and stickers to support the school.

Drama achievers Kevin Connell and Laura Collins were actively involved in SMHS drama productions.

Noted for their artistic abilities, Tim Morra and Mia King were named art achievers.

The English Department chose Chris Miller, and Edward Richards as NCTE writing contest nominees from SMHS.

Special Achievers in Various Pursuits

Respective departments acknowledge outstanding seniors

San Marino High School has consistently maintained a standard of excellence in academics. According to Mr. Jack Rose, assistant principal — instruction and pupil personnel, SMHS is one of the most "rigorous and competitive" schools in the state. The high quality of students at this school and their outstanding achievements reflect this fact. Members of the faculty recognized those students whom they considered "special achievers" in the various departments.

The English Department commended Christopher Miller, and Edward Richards for their writing ability. In '84-'85 the department screened essays written by the senior class of '85-'86, and as a result Chris and Edward were chosen to enter their essays in the National Council of Teachers of English writing contest. Additionally, Mrs. Lou Ann Fuentes, publications advisor, acknowledged Wen-Ching Chen, Victoria Deise, Christopher Miller, and Caroline Reinhard for outstanding work in journalism. Wen-Ching and Victoria were co-managing editors for the Titanian while Chris and Caroline were co-managing editors on the Titan Shield.

Chairman of the Speech Department, Mr. King Stuart, recognized Wen-Ching Chen, Charlotte Evans, Robert Kunzman, George Linardos, Vivian Luo, Christopher Miller, and Stephan Pastis as the strength of the speech team. These students had over 20 years of combined participation in speech tournaments, and all were state finalists. Mr. Stuart commented that the strength of these seniors made '85-'86 the best speech year ever. In the Language Department Mr. Paul Shickle mentioned Diana Yeh for her achievements in Latin. Diana represented SMHS at several JCL conventions, including the state convention, winning various honors. She also took the National Latin Exam and scored cum laude — the second highest honor possible.

Mr. Paul Clopper, Drama Department head, commended Laura Collins and Kevin Connell for their excellence in acting. Together they had 14 years of participation in plays and drama classes. In '85-'86 Laura was president of the Thespians club while Kevin was vice president. In art Mrs. Joanne Connor praised two artists, Mia King and Tim Morra. She noted their work as "consistently creative and professional." Also, Dance Department head Mrs. Bonnie Studt acknowledged Karen Ramos and Stacey Morrison as outstanding dancers. They both contributed many years of work to the dance program. Karen and Stacey were '85-'86 Dance Department president and vice president, respectively.

Mr. Tom Murie, Music Department chairman, recognized several top seniors. These students were Patty Hsu, Anne Overturf, Lesley Stanford, Mikiko Takeda, Valerie Troispoux, Henry Wang, Vincent Wang, and Diana Yeh. They were involved in one or more of the musical groups for many years and held leadership positions. They also were members of various ensembles and honor groups.

The Math Department commended Jeff Lin, Vincent Wang, and Diana Yeh for their outstanding contributions to the math club. These three students represented SMHS at several math competitions and consistently scored well. Additionally, the Science Department honored Vincent Wang for his summer research in microbiology at USC which resulted in his being named to the Westinghouse Science Talent Search honors group of the top 300 in the nation. Vincent was one of eight students in California named to the group.

Annually, juniors throughout the nation take the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test. In '85-'86 seven SMHS students were selected as National Merit Scholarship Finalists based on their test scores and administrative recommendations. These finalists were Victoria Deise, Julie Doyle, Robert Kunzman, Christopher Miller, Edward Richards, Vincent Wang, and Albert Woo.

Looking Ahead

Career Center plans futures

"The purpose of the Career Center is to provide students with specific information about careers. They need to know more than the general information taught in their classes," declared director Mrs. Barbara Bice. The Career Center was established about twelve years ago when the state decided that schools should provide students with practical information about careers so that they would be able to properly plan for their futures. Over the years the Career Center has grown and expanded its programs. Presently Mrs. Cathy Mencer and Mrs. Carol Bishop coordinate the Center on a daily basis.

Among the services offered to students is Operation Shadow, which is an opportunity for juniors and seniors to explore chosen career areas first-hand. In late March about 100 students were invited to "shadow" a professional in a career of their choice. Work Experience Education is also available. Through this program students are able to receive school credit as well as pay for supervised part-time employment. The Regional Occupational Programs are offered to students by the combined efforts of SMHS and Los Angeles County. Classes in this program include the basic requirements for employment and have instructors who earn their living doing what they teach.

Mrs. Bishop sees the Career Center continually improving its services and invites anyone to come and visit.

During a computer applications class, students work to finish an assignment. These classes are a part of ROP.

Mentor Teachers

Instructors work independently

The Mentor Teacher Program entered its third year in '85-'86. It involved teachers who had specific outside classroom projects. They all created unique educational programs and worked toward the common goal of improving the quality of education in San Marino.

In '85-'86 the four mentor teachers who worked at the high school were: Mrs. Lou Anne Fuentes, English and journalism instructor; Mrs. Peggy Mabry, co-chairman of the English Department; Mrs. Patti Nagvi, an English teacher; and Mr. Phil Ryan, a math instructor.

Mrs. Mabry ran one of the special projects entitled "K.I.D.S." This project involved publishing a newsletter and working on clinical teaching. Although the Mentor Teacher Program took a lot of effort, Mrs. Mabry explained, "You're doing something that's very close to your heart, so you spend more time on it."

Faculty Meetings

Teachers seek better curriculum

Teachers have been extremely productive in their extra time this year, according to English teacher Mrs. Barbara Barbarics. "We use every minute we can get," she added. Some of those minutes were spent as faculty members from their respective departments met weekly to discuss such topics as general student weaknesses, testing policies, and homework. In addition to other topics, teachers in the Math Department discussed upcoming Math Club competitions and math seminars at local colleges such as USC and UCLA. "The desserts are delicious," pointed out Mrs. Clare Kelm, co-head of the English Department, which, in addition to discussing important issues, had their own "luncheon" every week. The teachers held these meetings weekly or biweekly, and the entire faculty met monthly for the betterment of the curriculum, to benefit the students, and to make school more interesting. "We (the students) are getting a great advantage over those from other schools, commented Junior David Rose.

New Faculty

Students get most out of teachers

Six new faculty members were added to the teaching staff this year, raising the total to 13 added in the last two years. This year's new members include Miss Cynthia Chubbuck, Mr. Bob Cornelison, Mrs. Pamela Honse, Mr. Kevin Hall, Miss Deborah Dasher, and Mrs. Natalie Schweon. One goal that they all share is for the students to get the most out of their classes. "The people here are so friendly," commented Chemistry teacher Miss Chubbuck, adding, "I find it a very pleasant change." Geometry teacher Bob Cornelison, a member of San Marino High's Class of 1978, expressed, "It's strange that my former teachers have now become my colleagues." With so many new teachers arriving in the last few years, one might think that a new generation of teachers is beginning. "What is really happening is a merging of ideas between the new teachers and SMHS' veteran teachers. Truly a more advantageous education system is in the future of San Marino High School," speculated ASB member David Rose, a junior.

SMHS Administration

Dr. Richards explains goals

The San Marino High School Administration handled many familiar responsibilities in '85-'86, as well as some new ones, although Principal Dr. Gary Richards revealed that the actual day-to-day running of the school was not much different from in years past. In an interview, Dr. Richards explained the overall position of the administration.

Dr. Richards outlined essentially three types of goals that the administration set in '85-'86: instructional goals, extra-curricular goals, and administrative goals. Concerning instructional goals, Dr. Richards mentioned that the administration in '85-'86 strove to reinstate lost elective areas. "We've really shrunk in terms of the kinds of elective offerings," he admitted. The administration also tried, among other things, to upgrade instructional materials, such as books and desks, to emphasize "critical thinking" in the classroom, and to scrutinize the relationship between learning styles and instruction, or in other words, to examine the different methods of learning. "We're trying to look at the variables that make people learn in certain ways," explained Dr. Richards.

Administratively, Dr. Richards stressed the need for new desks, as well as the need for more student use of the Career Center. The administration also established a new method for evaluating teachers in '85-'86. Among extra-curricular goals, the administration pushed for a meaningful Cultural Awareness Week.

Of course, no school is without problems, and Dr. Richards acknowledged two main problems the administration tried to combat in '85-'86. First of all, the administration attempted to improve the high school's budget planning. One of the biggest worries about the school budget, according to Dr. Richards, was the scarcity of contingency money, or money in reserve for unforeseen emergencies. He attributed the district's financial problems to the fact that about 82% of the district money went into personnel salaries, so there was not very much excess money available. Another factor was the rising costs of fixed items such as heating, air-conditioning, water, and electricity. The other important problem was racial relations on campus. Dr. Richards expressed a desire to "keep the lines of communication open."

Dr. Richards felt that the future of SMHS looks promising. However, the most important factor is whether the enrollment will be large enough. As long as the enrollment remains around 1100 or 1000, then the high-school should retain its excellent standards, maintained Dr. Richards. He pointed to San Marino's virtues such as a strong staff, a good student body, and an interested community as evidence of San Marino's potential. "The key is going to be whether we have enough bodies," affirmed Dr. Richards.

When asked whether he enjoys his job, Dr. Richards answered enthusiastically, "Yeah! I do! There are never two days in a row that are similar." He cited examples such as a "great staff" and "a student body that's wonderful to work with" as reasons for his satisfaction. "I really have enjoyed working here," said Dr. Richards in conclusion.

SMU School District

Voters make key decisions

“They set policy to guide and direct the school district,” stated Superintendent Dr. David Brown about the Governing Board of the San Marino Unified School District, or the School Board. Although many people have heard of the School Board, perhaps not everyone realizes the importance of the group. They are responsible for the budget, the evaluation of personnel, the selection of curriculum and textbooks, as well as the hiring of administrators at the various district schools. In '85-'86, there was a School Board election to fill three vacancies. The winners of this election were Debby Bowes, David Destino, and Nancy L. Bartlett.

Because of the district's past financial problems, the School Board as well as the voters of San Marino made some key decisions to try to resolve some of these problems. Among these decisions was the issue of Measure H. This proposition would allow approximately $750,000 in added revenue to enter the district through an annual parcel tax. Supporters of Measure H claimed that this proposition would help to make up for lost revenues, but opponents felt that the money would only go towards teachers' and administrators' salaries, among other flaws. The measure lost in the November election.

The California lottery was another potential money-maker that was established in '85-'86. Dr. Brown was not totally sure how it would affect the school district, but he estimated it would perhaps generate up to $90,000. Additionally, the School Board applied for up to $2 million in state money for campus renovation in '85-'86.

Dr. Brown believed that the school district would continue to flourish in the future even though Measure H failed. He thought that the district would be able to receive enough money through other sources to survive.

Waiting for the first bell are Freshmen Christy Masney and Karalee Langlois. Many students arrive school early, in order to have some extra free time before school.

Excited that the school day is over, Nickie Severa and Tanya Wahbe stop to talk in the halls.

Important Changes

Freshmen students adjust

When starting high school, freshmen students will always need to make changes. Academic changes will often be the most important adjustment. "When I was going into ninth grade I expected it to be pretty bad. But, it turned out to be easy," expressed Freshman Amy Okum. Some freshmen stated that many of their classes were difficult. Most freshmen received a heavier load of homework than in eighth grade. They had to adjust to academic grades in high school being more important than the ones received in earlier years because colleges look at all of the grades earned by a high school student. With the help of friends, freshmen often adjust to high school easily.

Freshman Leaders

Cabinet stresses communication

"Everyone has done a great job participating in all our class activities," commented Alyson Seden, Freshman Class president. This year's Freshman Cabinet started the year off by preparing for the Homecoming Float Competition. Many 9th graders enjoyed contributing to the construction of the float, even though the 9th grade float didn't win. The cabinet also sponsored the Christmas Green Sale, in which the money they collected was set aside for the Freshman Class fund. Because the Christmas Green Sale is a tradition at San Marino High School, the cabinet kept the tradition going.

The cabinet had many goals set for this year, hoping that they would achieve the majority of them. Their main goal was trying to stress communication between the classes. Which was achieved by sponsoring school activities and lunchtime fundraisers. They made themselves available to anybody who had comments or suggestions that would benefit the Freshman Class and the job they were doing. The cabinet also tried to promote the spirit of the Freshman Class by painting posters for freshman activities. In the future, they hope to increase class cooperation and in-class participation.

Good Relations

Faculty cares for students

"Teachers play an integral part in any student's life. This is especially true during the sophomore year when students are still unsure of their capabilities. The teachers at SMHS realize this and have a warm, caring attitude toward their students," commented Sophomore Michelle Varner. One member of the faculty exhibiting this attitude is English teacher Mrs. Joyce Steece. This year, as in previous years, Mrs. Steece spent several weekends helping her sophomore honors students with their research projects. Mrs. Steece remarked, "I enjoy working with students on a one-to-one basis." Likewise, Mr. Jon Imamura, science teacher, approaches his classes with the view that "learning should be fun." "Mr. I" has been known to dress as a bee to enrich his "bee lecture" for his students. Similarly, math teacher Mr. Peter Boor has many ideas for students. He hopes to expand the Bike Club to include racing and wants to see the math and science departments working together on projects that would interest students. These are all future activities in which the Class of '88 could participate.

After school, Mr. Peter Boor advises Lisa Wines in algebra. Besides teaching, Mr. Boor has an interest in bicycles.

Sophomore Cabinet

Leaders plan for the future

Early in the year, the Sophomore Cabinet held two traditional fundraisers: the M&M sale and a Saturday car wash. The snowcone sale was added to this year's efforts. Six flavors of snowcones packed in "Titan Tumblers" were sold by the cabinet. Concerning the sale, Sophomore Treasurer Lisa Maywood remarked, "At first it was a lot of hard work and effort, but in the end, it all paid off."

This year's float building proved successful through its second place title in the float contest. The sophomore entry was built at the house of Mylene Duyvestein, Sophomore Class president. The cabinet members decided to hold a contest and let sophomore students enter float design ideas. The winner was Katie Wood with a "Titan Surfin' Safari" concept. According to cabinet members, this year's projects were directed at achieving more involvement in the Class of '88's activities and at providing funds for future cabinets. Summing up these projects was Katie Knaphurst, sophomore secretary, "Everything went a lot smoother than we had expected."

PSAT

PSAT prepares students

The PSAT is a Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test. The test is given to help students prepare for the SAT. The format of the PSAT and the SAT are similar; therefore, when the time comes to take the SAT, students are prepared and familiar with the test. Also, by taking the PSAT one will have an idea of the score which they will receive on the SAT. "The test was a valuable encounter, because now I know what I am ready for as well as what I am not ready for," stated Junior Nadine Ruiz. The PSAT tests English skills as well as mathematical skills. Through the test, National Merit Finalists are chosen. "I took the test to qualify for the National Merit. It was also a good experience," commented Junior Kathleen Shanahan.

Preparing for the PSAT, Junior Stephen Janes does some last minute studying. Most juniors took the test early this year.

Cabinet proposes new fundraisers

The Junior Class Cabinet of '85-'86 proposed a new fundraiser this year. Titan tumblers, which were "very popular among the students, brought in a lot of money," according to David Rose, Junior Class president. David had a lot of new ideas but did not have time to put them all into action. Homecoming was a major event, as it is every year, but there was not as much participation with the float-building as in past years. Still, the cabinet raised a lot of money from the usual fundraisers, including the student directory, the concession stand, and the car wash, all of which helped pay for the junior-senior prom. Because the cabinet raised so much money, next year's cabinet will have a great amount to work with. David expressed his feelings about this year by saying, "Thanks to a great cabinet; this is definitely the year for the class of '87!"

Junior Cabinet: Vice President Tricia DeSpirito; Secretary Natalie Box; Social Chairman Brynn Haag; Treasurer Tamra Salin; and President David Rose.

Senior Honor Roll

CSF Life/ Prometheans

SMHS honors talented seniors

Seniors who have been in CSF for three out of the four semesters from their sophomore and junior years and for one semester from their senior year were eligible for a CSF life membership. They were recognized with a gold seal on their diploma and transcript. Also, they wear gold tassels on their graduation caps and may be granted scholarships from the California Scholarship Federation. Dean Palmer, a member, said, "The CSF life program has inspired me to achieve an academic status far above any I would have realized."

Prometheans, another senior honor society, was based on service, grades, and leadership ability. Seniors with a 3.5 or better grade point average may be asked to apply. They were then chosen by three committees composed of juniors, seniors, and faculty members. "This year, twenty people were honored by this recognition of hard work," concluded Kim Berry.

SAB/CARE

Senior groups help others

Part of the school spirit at San Marino High School is expressed in the specialized groups such as SAB and CARE. The Senior Advisory Board is a group of 30 students that helps in the betterment of the school. After a written essay and long application, this year's members were selected by the Senior Cabinet of 1985-86. Among other things, the Senior Advisory Board helped set up the senior picnic and put together the senior slide show. Like SAB, CARE (Consultants Aiding Responsible Education) has 30 members, 10 boys and 20 girls. Throughout the year, CARE has gone to Huntington Junior High School to talk to and advise sixth-graders. Kim Berry, CARE member, praised, "CARE to me is one of my most important activities. The interaction I got with the sixth-graders helped me grow as a person." The leader of CARE, Mr. Mike Gallion, and the advisor for SAB, Mr. King Stuart, always put forth a large effort to keep the organizations strong.

Taking time out from lunch, Thad Linderman and Emilio Egeraige participate in the meeting.

Senior Advisory Board Front Row: Henry Yu, Vincent Wang, Jason Rothbard, Peter Pillsbury, Jim Ellsworth, Ted Fogliani, Rob Gledhill, Alex Coppersmith, Kevin Connell; Second Row: Laura Collins, Stacey Morrison, Chris Christensen, David Moore, John Dewey, Becky Imler, Karen Cooper, Christine Williamson, David Ling, Jennifer Olson, Jennifer Wilcott, Mr. King Stuart, advisor; Third Row: Sarah Seymour, Julene Penner, Tiffany Seden, Tammy Pettee, Jewellyn Goehner, Lisa Pederson, Kathy Palk, and Jane Hsu.

Paying careful attention to the guest speaker, Chris Cruz thinks about the new ideas presented.

Senior Polls

While playing on one of the frisbee teams, Steve Riegler enthusiastically covers the field. Seniors had fun playing both frisbee and softball.

Rob Kunzman tries a couple of sandwiches. The food was provided by the Senior Advisory Board.

Tinker, Claudine Mauriello, and Cynthia Whol join arms as a symbol of friendship. They've been friends all through high school.

Taking a minute to enjoy herself at the picnic, Jane Isu rode the horses at the playground. As a member of SAB she helped plan the picnic.

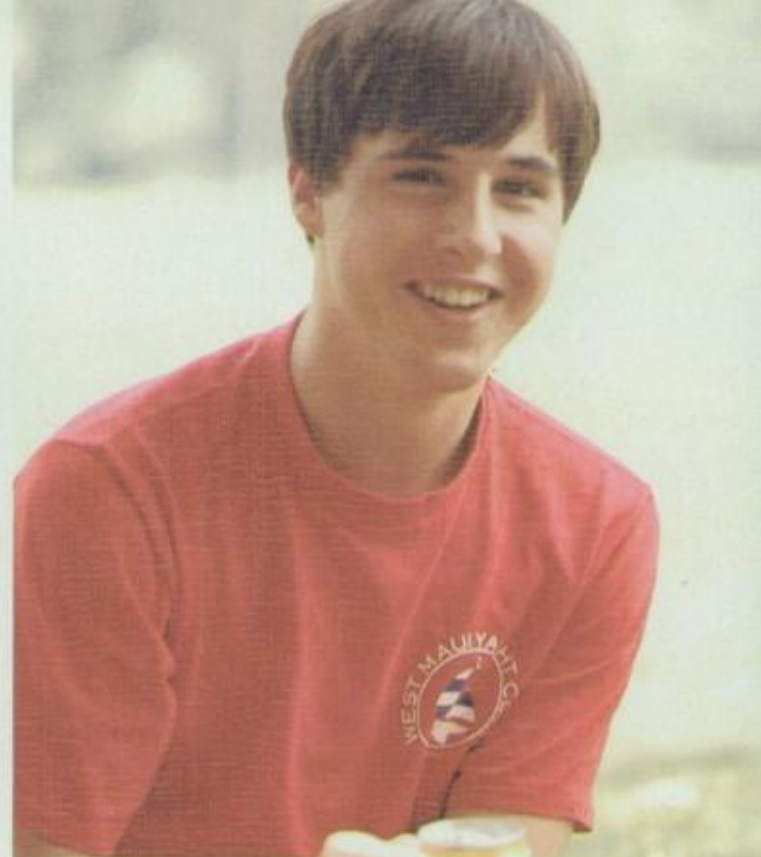

Taking a break from frisbee, Vik Momdjian enjoys a Coke. Plenty of food and drinks were offered.

Senior Picnic

Roni Wilson and Becky Imler look on as picnic activities begin. No games will start, though, until the sandwiches are eaten!

After playing a game of frisbee, Jeff Duncan sits down to take a break.

Christa Polich sits in on major administrative decisions concerning the day's events. Mr. Jack Rose and Dr. Gary Richards listen to Mr. David Christ's ideas.

Lysette Glorioso pins up her hair in preparation for the sports. Frisbee was a popular game at the picnic.

Henry Yu takes a practice swing before the game. He can really swack the ball.

David Kolson waits for his turn to catch the frisbee. He enjoys the sport as a form of recreation and also as a hobby.

Students stay warm by a fire at the Christmas Dance of 1983. This was the time when they had to ask parents to chauffeur them about town.

Joff Schufreider rushes to join a lunchtime activity at Huntington Junior High. He continued to play sports as a Titan.

Eighth grade boys dress up as cheerleaders for the Sissy Bowl. The girls played football.

Sara Schwab, Jalee Lind, and Kim Marsh keep cool in the shade at lunchtime. As seniors they were able to use the air conditioning of their cars for comfort.

Christine Williamson and Alyson Long watch the Sissy Bowl at Huntington Junior High. They cheered for the eighth grade class, which won.

Rob Kunzman, as an eighth grader, wears the Spirit Day colors, red and white. His enthusiasm carried on through high school.

Changing People

High school is a time for growth

"People. Change. The two words are inseparable," observed Senior Victoria Deise. "Looking over photographs from early childhood through junior high and high school confirms the fact: we all change." Usually the change comes from growth, whether it be physical or mental. High school is a time of tremendous growth in all areas. After four years, the same guys that were 5'4" became 6'1", well built senior men. The girls went from being preppy clones to stylish individuals.

Thinking back to their first Coronation, seniors remember being panicked if they weren't going by the second week of school. Their senior year, they were lucky to be going by the week before the dance.

Along with appearances and circumstances, friends changed. Seniors discovered that it was possible to have friends from more than one selective group of people and that others didn't have to be seniors to be normal. And, they even befriended some teachers! They hopefully learned something from their classes, maybe if it only was that the U.S. is capitalist and the U.S.S.R. is communist. Students looked forward to their senior year, when it would be them on the football field and their graduation. And suddenly, there they were.

Somewhere between filling out college applications and waiting for acceptances or rejections they realized that their senior year of high school was not the end, but a beginning. "Yes, we've gone through a lot, and we've changed; but we will go through so much more, and who knows how much more we'll change?" reflected Victoria. Seniors wondered that while they'd laughed at how grown-up they thought they were as freshmen, would they, in time, look back at their senior year and think how naive they all once were? Only time, and more change would tell.

Jennifer Olson jokes with friends at lunchtime. As a senior, she enjoyed the privilege of being allowed to go off campus.

Tiffany Seden, Kelly Gudel, and Cher Morgan can't wait to dig into the cake that their "big sisters" baked for them. It was a warm welcome to high school.

Heading off to their first Coronation, Peter Pillsbury and Victoria Deise begin to explore the social aspects of SMHS.

Liana Drew, Vicki Kessler, Susan Crosby, and Kelly Gudel say the class of '86 is number one. Their spirit was still high as seniors.

Tiffany Seden and Jewelyn Goehner cheered as freshmen. They were song leaders together their senior year, too.

P.S. I'm gonna TRY to make it to your 18th b-day!

Hi Pat, Bye! five betts go xxx

P.S. Well now I can short!
Hey, it's real RAD to have met such HIP, COOL person (no names - I don't want you booooo "modest"...) Well, a special

Senior Float

Seniors prevail again!

For the past four years, the Class of '86 has been awarded first prize with their homecoming floats, the first time this has happened in SMHS's history. The seniors constructed the float at the Pillsbury's home.

Peter Pillsbury submitted the idea, and Sr. Class president, Kevin Connell illustrated it. The theme this year was "Titan Safari." The float was a gorilla manipulated with a ladder, ropes, and a pulley. The gorilla was so enormous, students had to stand on the roof to complete it. "We were in really good shape this year. The float came together the last night," concluded Stacey Morrison, Sr. Class secretary.

VALERIE TROISPOUX — "Stand up to be seen; sit down to be heard; and shut up to be appreciated." — Bernard Shaw Please keep laughing. Thanx, guys — 107 not 106.

Standing in front of the Rose Bowl, Julene begins her duties as Princess. Her "duties" included being on television with Bob Hope.

Rose Princess

Tournament crowns Julene

"I've never been so excited in my life!" exclaimed Miss Julene Pehner, Rose Princess for the 1985-1986 Court. Julene, a 17-year-old senior at San Marino High School, was chosen to be on a court of seven, out of an original 950 girls, for the Tournament of Roses. During the course of her reign, Julene attended over 100 media and social events for the Tournament. When asked why she tried out, she replied, "It was something I'd always dreamed of doing." Inspired by her childhood babysitter, Linda Strothers, who was once a queen for the Tournament herself, Julene has grown up with the hopes of one day becoming a Princess. Her dream came true.

CRISTA POLICH . . . Love a lot, laugh a lot, live a lot; family . . . friends . . . The best of everything to everybody always!

Being on the Court, Aimee learned new ways to wear her hair and use make-up. New clothes were an added pleasure.

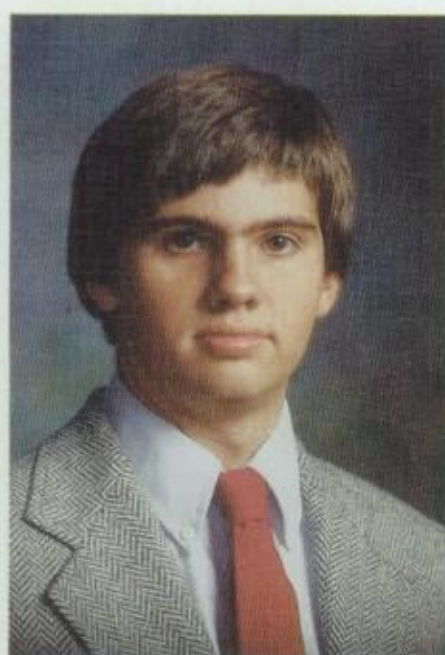

Rose Court

Aimee crowned Queen

Of 950 young women to try out, Miss Aimee Richelieu, a seventeen year old senior at SMHS, was crowned Queen of the 68th annual Tournament of Roses Royal Court for the 1985-1986 term. Trying out because it was something fun to do that all of her friends were doing, Aimee never dreamed that she would become Queen. "I was thrilled when I found out, but shocked more than anything!" exclaimed Aimee. She was excited at the prospect of something new. She attended over 100 media and social events; and, leading the Court on New Year's Day "was the icing on the cake." Overwhelmed by her new responsibilities for the Tournament, she still found time for her other activities, such as Omegas and water polo.

Taking a break, Seniors Lucia Matioli, Carolyn Stussi, Karen Cooper, and Laila Skjerpe enjoy themselves.

Ditch Week

Seniors continue tradition

“Mr. Cameron is probably lecturing right now,” commented an anonymous senior; “I feel sorry for the juniors who are in class. Anyway, turn up the radio; it’s our turn to skip class.” The seniors then enjoy the remainder of the day to themselves.

Senior Ditch Week is a SMHS tradition which extends back many years. During finals week at the end of the year, some members of the Senior Class “blow out” school for a week. In this week, the students make excursions to the mountains, the beaches, and various other recreational sites. Senior David Guluzian stated, “Seniors anticipate this week as a last chance to go out with friends.”

DILYS HUANG . . . Have patience, all things are difficult before they become easy.

A Busy Year

Senior Class Cabinet handles responsibilities and 'accomplishes much'

The Senior Class Cabinet and advisory board worked hard all year. With the help of President Kevin Connell, the cabinet organized and distributed the Senior Calendar and put on a successful Senior Polls Dance.

"This year's cabinet has been very busy trying to make this year as exciting as possible. There has been great support of all of our activities, and we have accomplished much in the span of one year," commented Kevin Connell when asked about his term as president.

As is tradition with all Senior Class cabinets, this year's cabinet was responsible for the annual class picnic which took place the second week of school. As usual the picnic's purpose was to boost spirit and create excitement for the coming year. According to Jane Hsu, SAB member, "It really turned out well!" Other responsibilities were to help with the senior play, and to put together the senior slide show. Their support of the building of the homecoming float proved worthwhile as the Senior Class took first place for the fourth year in a row.

Mardi Gras

"The warm and friendly spirit of the community, the cooperation of the junior and senior parents, and the pure joy of working for a group of outstanding young people make Grad Night a most unique experience for our graduates," claimed 1986 Grad Night Chairman Mrs. Diane Miner.

Grad Night traditionally is put on by the junior and senior parents. The senior parents do the actual construction of the facade and decoration of both the Girls' and Boys' gyms, while the junior parents volunteer their efforts during the nights' festi-ties. Their major purpose is to staff the game booths and serve dinner.

The theme for the graduating class of '86 was "Mardi Gras," which was selected by the class at the end of their junior year by casting votes in homeroom.

During the course of the evening the seniors are served a sit-down dinner in the Boys' Gym followed by an evening of free time. During the night and early morning there are many game booths and activities to participate in; at around 5 a.m. breakfast is served, and then the class is free to go home.

Back packing is an essential part of Jenna McBride and Ann Overturf's Winter Survival. They embarked on a challenging overnight trip.

Separated from their group, Linda Lee, Nancy Odom, Lisa Schneider, and Angie Villa explore Badger Pass. Cross-country skiing attracted many students.

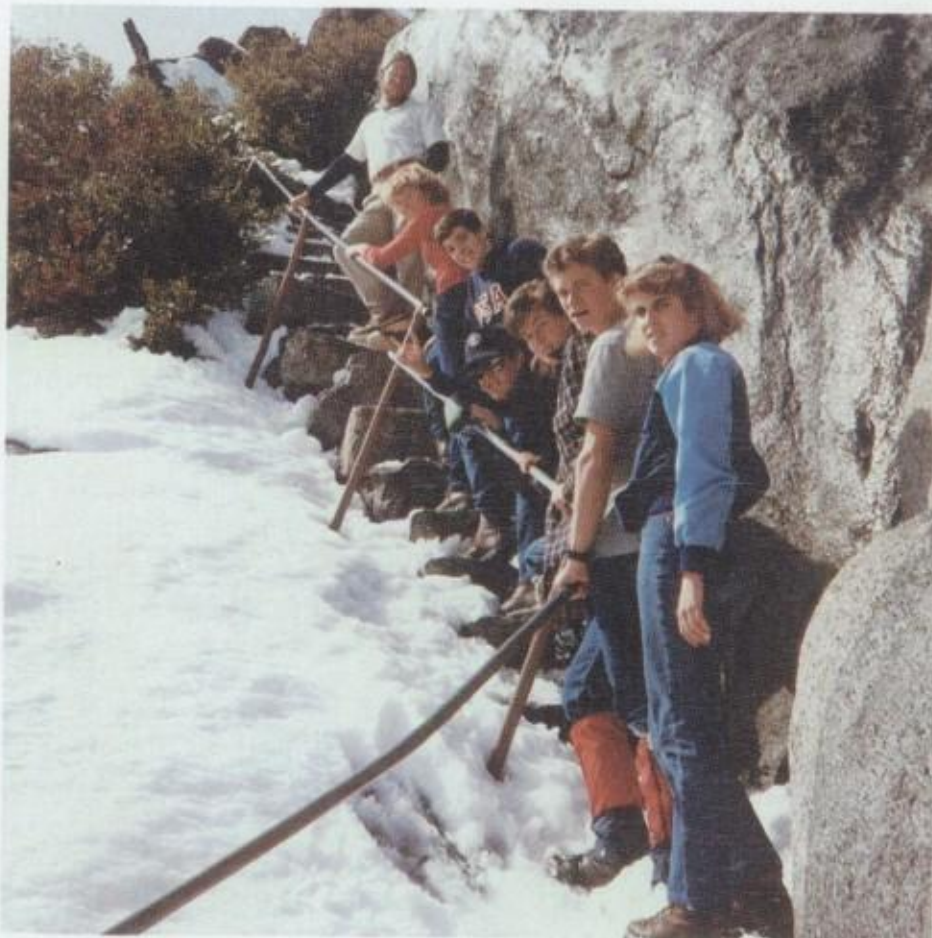

A group of Crane Flat students enjoys the snowy weather. They also enjoyed skiing and getting to know one another.

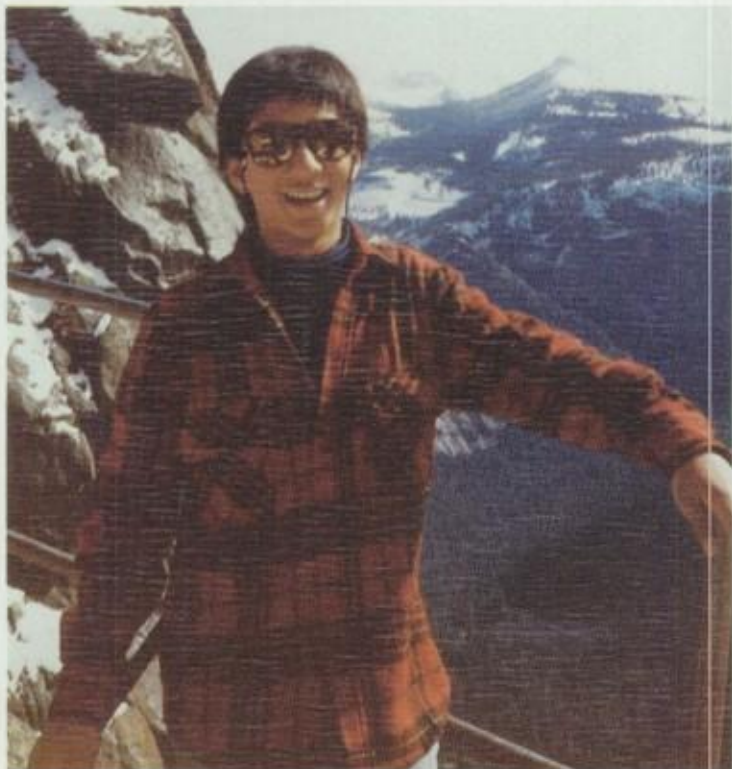

After being out for three days, High Country returns from Hite Cove. They had to endure rain for two out of the three days.

Stretching while on a break, Mindy Schmidt, Jennifer Wilcott, and Becky Imler look forward to a day of skiing.

Hiking up to Yosemite Falls is a challenging hike that is offered. Many students enjoyed the beautiful view from the top.

As Chris Cruz reaches the top of the falls, he stops to admire the majestic view of the mountain. It was a steep three and a half mile hike.

Building a pyramid, the Merced Grove group understands how energy flows from plants to herbivores to carnivores and plants. Throughout the week, students learned about geology and ecology.

Daring students go ice skating on an outdoor skating rink. Skating was an option for a night activity.

At wrap-up night, Keith Forman and Kevin Connell imitate SMHS song girls. Wrap-up night was a time for each specialty group to tell about their adventurous week.

Yosemite Week

Students experience outdoor life

The Yosemite '86 trip, from February 8 to February 14, offered several excursions: Crane Flat, Merced Grove, High Country, and Winter Survival. Each trip was different and offered a variety of experiences. The first day's hike was to Mirror Lake. The next day one could go to the top of Yosemite Falls, El Capitan, or cross-country skiing at Badger Pass. The last days were saved for group hikes to different places. Yosemite was not just a vacation from school; many students felt that they learned a lot about nature and about each other. Heather MacCuish commented, "I got to know people I never knew before while getting to know the people I knew before even better."

In past years, the number of students going to Yosemite has fluctuated. The first year Yosemite was offered, 90 students went, while one year as many as 185 students went. Teacher Mr. Martin Udell expressed, "The Yosemite experience has once again proved to be a very valuable experience for students and teachers alike."

Mr. Michael McNamee, Yosemite program coordinator for SMHS and Athletics Director stated, "As far as the future of Yosemite is concerned, I hope that every student has an opportunity to go to Yosemite because it is such a valuable experience."

At Crane Flat, Carrie Reynolds, Stacey Morrison and Dunia Mittner prepare for a day in the snow. At Crane Flat, the students hiked to the fire lookout and to a giant sequoia grove.

printing to the other side of the field, Sophomore Erica Nicholas and Freshman Jocelyn Rothbard race to pass their baton to a teammate. The race was a cool activity.

Winning points for their class, the sophomore girls use all their strength to defeat freshman girls in tug-o-war. This was the first contest of the Rivalry Day week-end.

Displaying victory, Bevan Cotton poses with his empty pie tin. He won this contest by finishing his pie first.

Colliding blindly, freshmen and sophomores race toward their class's corner in refrigerator boxes. This event took place later in the day in the boy's gym.

Ready to begin the tug-o-war, seniors Brad Kirk, Jim Wagner, Scott Robinson, Jeff Moret, Sean Diaz, and Thad Linderman prepare for refereeing the coming events. Traditionally, senior guys have been the referees for Rivalry Day.

Victoriously, freshman boys reach the flag and win the grease pole event. The freshman girls also won, but only by a few seconds.

Rivalry Day

Classes compete

The success of the '84-'85 Rivalry Day helped to reinstitute the tradition of this year's event. Excelling in such activities as the 20-man relay and pushball, the sophomores gathered enough points to defeat the freshmen. These, along with other activities, were held on the 7th and 8th of February.

According to Katie Knaphurst, sophomore secretary, "the day went smoothly. It turned out a lot better than we were expecting it to." The cabinet credited the success of '85-'86 Rivalry Day partly to increased overall participation, which will help to insure the Frosh-Soph competition in the future.

Struggling to obtain control of the ball, sophomore and freshman boys try to score a goal in a game of pushball. Even though the ground was muddy, the underclassmen still played the game on the football field.

With feet tied, freshman boys compete against sophomore girls in a volleyball game. The sophomore boys played next against the freshman girls.

Bouncing across the gym floor, Alyson Seden participates in the "hippity-hop" relay. The freshman class won this contest.

Adding uniqueness to the festivities, Kirsten Sher, Kurt Miner, Nicolette Angelos, George Linar-los, Megan Boswell, and David Moore show their creativity.

After hearing her name, Robin Harris collects her doorprize. For the first time door prizes, donated by local merchants, were given away in a drawing.

Christmas Dance: The Jingle Bell Rock

Amicians find new indoor location for holiday festivities

“The Christmas Dance was a huge success this year with around five hundred people attending. Everyone seemed to have a great time,” reflected Patty Ogden, Amician President.

Amicians, a girls' service club, sponsors the annual Christmas Dance. For the first time the dance was held at the Pasadena Convention Center, instead of private homes or like last year's Lloyd's Bank parking lot. The dance commenced at 9 p.m. on December 14 with the music of a live band, the Singles. The Singles played at the 1985 prom. At 11 p.m. the court was announced and crowned by five Amician members. The court consisted of King Rob Gledhill; Senior Prince Pat Bolton; Junior Prince Eric Swanson; Sophomore Prince Beck Soderberg; and Freshman Prince Scott Wilcott.

In future years the Amicians hope to continue holding the dance at the Pasadena Convention Center, “because of the convenience and subsequent success of the dance this year,” responded Mrs. Sue Pettis, Amician advisor.

Stage Performances

Students supply laughter and drama

This year's 1st play was Nightwatch, directed by Mr. Paul Clopper, the drama director. It was a murder mystery with nine main characters. Laura Collins commented, "Through the acting, I think the viewers really seemed to enjoy an evening of laughter and drama in Nightwatch." The traditional Frosh-Soph One-Acts were presented during the month of December in the Little Theater. These plays included Springtime for Dan, The Neglected Husbands' Sewing Club, and The Dancers. Anyone could try out for these plays as long as they were willing to stay after school for the rehearsals. The rehearsals last for approximately five to six weeks, the last few being the most intense. After all this hard work, the plays were ready to be presented. As Kim Moore concluded, "The plays were a good experience and a total blast."

Distraught, Laura Collins describes a murder she witnessed to her psychologist Cindy Ralphs in Nightwatch.

Titan Trends

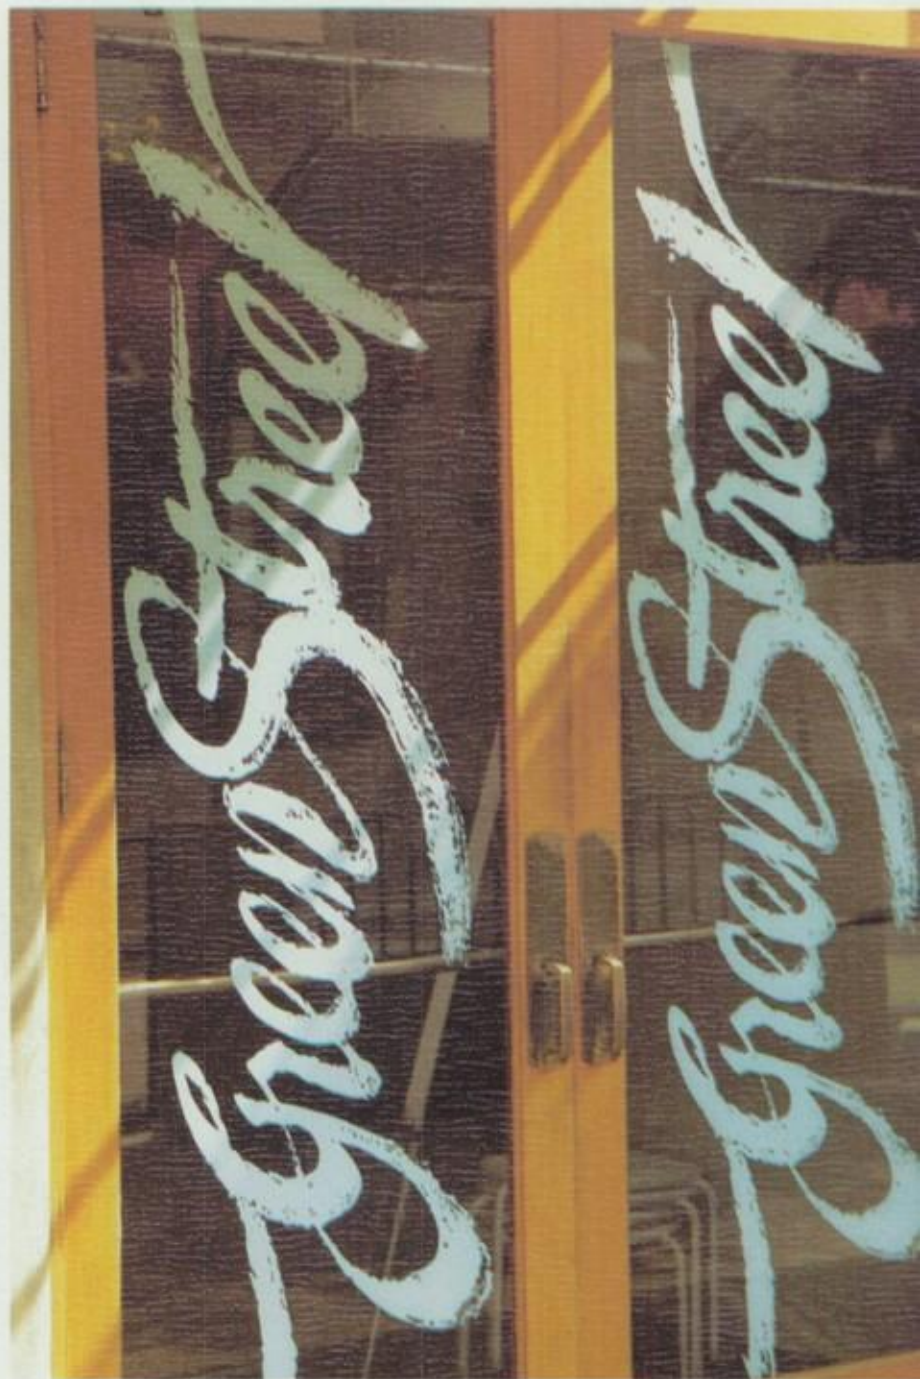

Which ones will last?

What makes a fad? Is it the way you do your hair just like your best friend? Or is it how you had to have that Swatch just because everyone else had it? These are both examples of fads. A fad is a style or way of doing something that becomes popular among a large group of people.

Each year brings about a new gathering of fads. In '85-'86, paisleys and prints made returning hits. Also, many people enjoyed the comfort of stirrup pants and Reebok tennis shoes. And, Swatch watches were still "the watch to own." Swatch has now expanded its line into great accessories, too.

But fads go beyond just clothing. They include things to do, places to eat, and things to see. When it came down to food, SMHS students couldn't seem to beat Green Street, Häagen Dazs, or the Hard Rock Cafe. And if they talked about movies, the titles Back to the Future and St. Elmo's Fire probably came up as their favorites. For weekend life, many skateboarders, tennis and football players, surfers, and beach goers could be found around school.

Keep in mind though, that a fad is merely a popular style that many people follow. It is not at all a compulsory way of doing things. So branch out. Be creative. Who knows? Maybe you'll create a brand new fad!

A favorite local restaurant to S.M. students, known especially for their Diane Sala, is Green Street on Lake Avenue.

Coronation

Students have fun at the Angeloffs'

“Looking back at the last four year's Coronations, I'd have to say that this year's was the best,” exclaimed Senior Brian Hill. As in the past, San Marino crowned its court the week before Homecoming. The event took place at the Angeloffs' as ASB President Rob Kunzman pointed out, “We were very fortunate to have had use of such a nice home.” The chilly evening got off to a late start, but, according to Kim Berry, “It all came alive, and the band, Keeper, was excellent.” The dance was chaperoned by Mr. David Crist, Dr. Gary Richards, Mr. Jack Rose, Mrs. Sue Pettis and a few willing parents. The evening came to a close after the announcements of the court. They were: Queen, Jennifer Angeloff; Senior Princess, Cher Morgan; Junior Princess, Wendy Mills; Sophomore Princess, Melinda Fedde; and Freshman Princess, Emilie Kerckhoff. Next year the Coronation will again be sponsored by the ASB and will need to find a home in which it can take place. Added Victoria Deise, ASB Activities Commissioner, “This year's ASB had a lot of fun and really worked hard to create an evening for everyone to enjoy.”

Pep plans ongoing tradition

“Homecoming turned out to be a successful day thanks to the time, effort, and organization of Pep, ASB, the band, and the administration,” commented Julie Doyle, 1985-'86 Pep Commissioner. During Homecoming week Pep worked hard preparing team homes for all the players in order to decorate the Central Patio on Friday morning. Each class worked after school to complete their floats, and ASB planned a catered lunch of chicken and baked beans. Following lunch, Pep performed a rally which consisted of this year's members and some members from last year's pep. The festivities continued with a parade down Huntington Drive, and concluded with a football game later that evening. At halftime, it was revealed that the Class of '86 had successfully won the float competition for the fourth year in a row, the first class to do so in the history of SMHS.

Titan Dreams

Students become more realistic

Dreams. We all have them. Some of us dream about going to the moon or winning a Nobel Prize while others would like to be wealthy or travel all over the world. As young children, many of us wanted to be exactly like a favorite musician or television star; we had idols. When asked about who their idol was, several SMHS students responded that they didn't have one. These responses may indicate a growing maturity, as does the realization that dreams of becoming U.S. President probably won't come true.

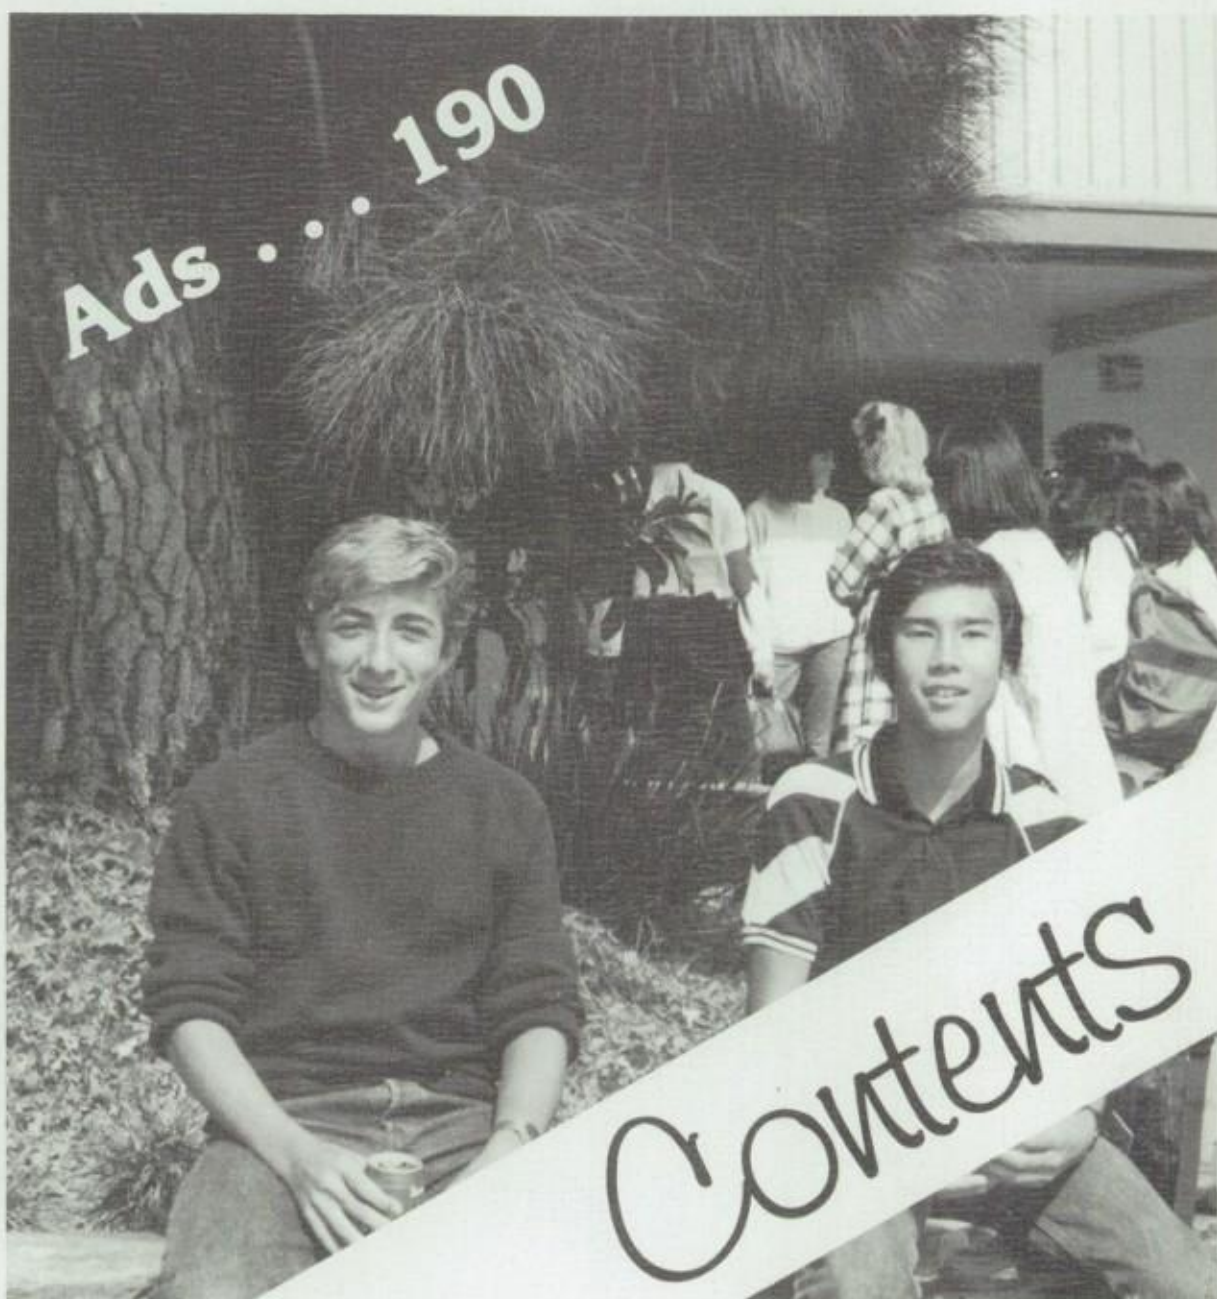

High school is a time to dream, but it is also a time to grow and change, and therefore our dreams must change with us. As we leave high school, we will be subjected to the "real world," and our dreams will become secondary to just surviving every day. Therefore, we need to take the time to enjoy high school, our silly dreams, and the time we have now. Because, soon we will move on to probably bigger, but not necessarily better things.

Patricia -
Well this year as come to an end and its time for me to move on to college. I hope your next two years at SMHS are great ones and I wish you the best of luck in swimming. Best wishes in the future.
Have a rad summer.

PAT,
HI. IT'S ME TED! WELL
ANOTHER YEAR HAS GONE
BY AND I CAN'T BELIEVE THAT WE'VE SURVIVED SWIM-MING. YOU ARE A FANTASTIC
AND LIVELY PERSON. I'VE HAD LOTS OF FUN TALKING TO YA THIS YEAR AND I HOPE THAT WE'LL BE IN
SOME OF THE SAME CLASSES
NEXT YEAR! HAVE A
DAN ONE! - Ted

PAT -
How are you? It's another year done and two more to go. I'm so glad this year is over, aren't you? It has been fun with you in a couple of my classes this year and maybe next year we will have more together. I don't think we will be missing Spanish that much and Mr. Lutes' jokes. Actually I'm very glad we're done. Have a good summer and maybe I'll see you sometime during it.

Patricia the lady whose always in fashion. Thanks for being a friend at SM and you've made me feel accepted. Good luck in your artistic career. See you next year. Victor

Dear Pat, I didn't though, you are a nice person. Enjoy your last year at high school. You really nice, and stay that way! Take care of yourself!

Love, Lisa (Senior)

Pat, The year's finally over! I can't believe it won't see Sr. Duties! You're a great fashion advisor and when you become rich and famous, I'll remember me! Have a great summer! Love, Mary. P.S. Try to control yourself, you can't control your life. This year is your chance to shine! Don't let it pass! I can't wait to see you in your senior year! All the best to you! Love, Sarah Walters.

Patricia, We've made it through 2 whole years of senior. What an accomplishment. I'm so glad we have been in the same class. I'll be waiting for you to design my wedding dress. Have a great summer. Sarah Walters.

Pat, Like what Tomi said, but I mean you're unique. Have Fun in S.M. H.S.
